President New York and New Jersey Cricket Association.

All-North America Elevens

By F. F. Kelly.

It would be impossible to lay down any cast-iron reason for the fact that general interest in cricket has increased by leaps and bounds in the last thirty years. The fact is incontrovertible, whatever the cause may be, but to most of those who have watched the course of cricket events, the progress of competition cricket will present itself as the primary cause of the progress of the game, as a whole. At the same time, there is a fair field left for those who choose to maintain that the impetus given to competitive cricket is really due to the rapid spread of the game itself and the attendant enthusiasm of its admirers; while there is, as usual, a third course left to us, which is to maintain that the two things, general cricket and competitive cricket, have advanced, each owing much to the other.

The past season was one of the most interesting in the history of the game in North America, principally on account of the visits of the Australians, who proved themselves far too strong for all their opponents, and the Incogniti, one of the most famous of all wandering clubs.

The international match between the United States and Canada, which was scheduled to be played in Winnipeg, did not take place, and it was very much to be regretted. Every effort should be made to revive this international match, as it should be the ambition of all cricketers to strive for a place on the teams.

So many requests have been received to again give what would be considered the best All-United States and All-Canada teams that the Editor suggests the following for the United States: First of all comes J. B. King, who, unfortunately, only played in a few matches last season, but his form clearly demonstrated he is still in a class by himself, and it is very good news to hear that there are prospects of his being seen on the field regularly during the coming season. His retirement would be a tragedy to the game. T. C. Jordan again commands first place as wicket-keeper. Percy H. Clark last season proved, in addition to being a fine bowler, that he can get runs when needed—note his innings of 82 against the Australians—and was the main factor in their solitary defeat. C. C. Morris also played a delightful innings against the Australians of 78, his motto being to get the bowler before the bowler gets you. H. A. Furness covered himself with glory, with a grand innings of 106 not out, the only century hit against the Cornstalks. R. P. Anderson, his magnificent fielding alone fully justifies a place. He is also a most promising batsman. H. G. Pearce, as a fast bowler, is entitled to a place. He not only headed the bowling averages in the "Halifax Cup," but his feat of securing 7 wickets for 57 runs against the Australians is worthy of special mention. Arthur Hoskings is still regarded as the best all-round cricketer in New York and played a good innings of 51 not out against the Incogniti. J. L. Poyer still justifies a place as a most consistent scorer against any class of bowlers. J. H. Briggs, by many considered the best "swerve" bowler, and last, but by no means least, W. M. P. MacDonald, for many years prominent in New England.

For the Dominion, first and foremost is G. Curgenven, who captained Derbyshire for several seasons. During the past season he was the only cricketer to score 1,000 runs and secure 100 wickets, and was considered by the Australians as the best cricketer they had met on their tour. A. H. Gibson and H. S. Reid are both fine batsmen. Lieutenant H. R. N. Cobbett, P. P. Barnett, F. I. C. Goodman, F. C. B. Cave and T. Smith are all very useful cricketers, W. L. Price and H. G. Wookey undoubtedly are first-class bowlers, and Dr. W. W. Wright takes first place amongst the wicket-keepers.

The make-up of the two teams would then be as follows:

INCOGNITI CRICKET CLUB, ENGLAND.

Cricket in New York

CRICKET IN NEW YORK FOR THE LAST TWENTY YEARS.

BY W. FENWICK.

From a fairly intimate acquaintance with cricket and cricketers in New York, I think I can safely say that the game has improved considerably and risen in popular favor during the above period. The formation of the Metropolitan District Cricket League over twenty years ago has, doubtless, contributed much towards this result. Lord Hawke brought over his first English team in 1891 and met sixteen playing under the auspices of the league. It included two "live Lords" (Hawke and Throwley) and an "Honorable" (Mills). The officials of the league nearly "fell over each other" in their endeavor to properly entertain the illustrious visitors, and having dined them at $12 a plate and "theatered" them as a "preliminary," it may be safely inferred that they succeeded. In this match Archie Brown, the well-known local batsman, made a memorable score, mainly by steering the expresses of S. M. J. Woods to the boundary, and was presented with a bat by C. W. Wright, the English wicket keeper.

At one time the league consisted not only of a first and second section, but a second eleven section (some twenty teams), making it, however, somewhat unwieldy. The second eleven section dropped out and, later on, the second section (with, apparently, an idea that the league had been formed more in the interests of the first section), seceded from the organization and formed the New York Cricket Association. A game between the league and association was played annually, but the parent maintained the upper hand. The association long since ceased to exist, but the league was not long without its second section. Over twenty years ago there was a good club in New York called the Amateur League. Among its members was the late Billy Brewster and A. H. Stratford, a capital slow bowler and a good bat, who played for Middlesex, and who still lives in New Jersey.

There are cricketers who do not altogether approve of leagues, and I have heard that the champion, "W. G.," is one, but it seems to me that for the game to flourish there must be organization; still it would appear that the little courtesies attending friendly games are often overlooked in games which are more for "blood." League clubs pay an annual fee mainly for having a schedule of games made for them; committees settle any disputes and prevent men transferring to another club while indebted to their first love. Playing for the New Jersey Athletic Club in 1893, M. R. Cobb (126) and Harry Tyers (170) made 305 without loss of a wicket versus Elizabeth, N. J.

A few years ago several of the league clubs left that organization and helped to form the New York and New Jersey Cricket Association, which, like the league, is now a flourishing body, and in 1903 the New York Veteran Cricket Association was formed on a small scale, which (thanks chiefly to the untiring efforts and financial support of J. S. Bretz) has, with a fine ground at Manor Field, Staten Island, outgrown all conception, so that it has placed two teams in the first and one in the second section of the New Jersey Cricket Association, and its members have toured Philadelphia, Canada and Bermuda, and perhaps England will be next in order. Before organizing, the New York Veterans had played very pleasant home and out games with the "Ancients" of

1. Smith; 2. Gregory; 3. Cameron; 4. Goodman; 5. Brebner; 6. Hawkins; 7. Buckley; 8. Wallace; 9. Lane, Capt.; 10. McLachlan; 11. Hart; 12. Kenyon; 13. Burgess; 14. Malone. Rolfe, Photo.

Philadelphia. Some inter-city matches have been played between New York, Boston and Philadelphia, and these should be continued.

The chief drawback, perhaps, in the attainment of greater proficiency in the game in New York, is the lack of more private grounds and, above all, professionals for coaching the younger element, which is too readily won over to base ball. In Philadelphia, where finances are easy, I believe every club has its "pro" (in addition to ground men), whose services are of incalculable benefit, and practice is kept up indoors in winter, while in New York, at the present time, only Staten Island, the New York Veterans and the Manhattans can boast of "pros"—all competent Englishmen—but their time is mostly taken up in caring for grounds. Then, too, a man working hard until, say, 3 P. M. does not feel like bowling and coaching for the next two hours. I know of no club needing the services of a coach more than the Crescent Athletic Club, with a good private ground and a lot of promising cricketers, and here there is no question of money. After all, it seems to me we ought to put up better international fights. Lack of confidence against formidable opponents seems to be our chief failing. For instance, when the last Irish team visited us, our first six men at bat were retired without scoring! True, the bowling was new to our men, but it did not appear to be very difficult. If the whole of Saturdays could be devoted to league games, a full match might be played, but the exigencies of business precludes this. Afternoon games are more of a "scramble," with many unsatisfactory draws. I must not omit to mention that there is a Prospect Park League in Brooklyn, also the Van Cortlandt Park League, of eight clubs, under the presidency of T. C. Cliff, who is elected annually, containing many good players. Appended is a list of international matches played in and around New York with some interesting individual scores and innings totals. The "enemy" came, saw and, generally, conquered, leaving us experience and engendering good fellowship. Our league and association doings are matters of annual record, appearing in this GUIDE.

It is pleasing that the old Staten Island ground at Livingston (where most of these international and other contests have taken place), with its cosy club house, is still going. Here, on match days, the courteous R. St. G. Walker may be found ready to greet his friends and strangers, and I know of no man in New York who has contributed more to the success of international cricket. There are a number of clubs in Greater New York composed of colored players, mostly West Indians. There are some excellent cricketers among them, and, although they have no league, they are good sports. In the course of years clubs have ceased to exist, but many of the members have joined and strengthened others. The grounds of the old New Jersey Athletic Club, afterwards known as the Knickerbocker Cricket Club, at Bayonne, are now built over with factories. Some good cricket used to be played, too, at Berkeley Oval, in the Bronx, and at Morris Park, nearby.

If I may be allowed a slight use of the personal pronoun, I may say that, in my humble connection with New York cricket, it has been my privilege to have taken a prominent part in the formation of the Harlem and Columbia Oval clubs and the New York Veteran Association. That great bowler, Death, has deprived the older boys who are still "not out," of the comradeship of many worthy associates, notably, in recent years, David A. Munro and Henry Martin, who were both several times president of the Metropolitan District Cricket League, and "Sammy" Hosford, all members of the Veteran Association. I have penned these lines at the request of the well-known cricketer and "statistician," F. F. Kelly, from a lifelong love of the greatest of games. It seems to me if cricket (now played practically everywhere) could speak—and perhaps it does—it might say in the words of the immortal Tennyson in "The Brook":

> "Men may come and men may go,
> But I go on forever."

BENNS MOHAIRS,

Champions Rhode Island and District Amateur Cricket League

METROPOLITAN DISTRICT CRICKET LEAGUE.

President, Alfred Tyrrill; Vice-President, P. C. McAteer; Secretary-Treasurer, Harry Rushton, 1932 Arthur Avenue, New York.

Comprising Bensonhurst C.C., Brooklyn C.C., Brooklyn United Sons of St. George C.C., Kings County C.C., Manhattan C.C.

One of the closest struggles in the history of the Metropolitan District Cricket League occurred in the championship series just finished. Not until the last game in either section was the pennant winner disclosed, with Brooklyn and Bensonhurst running neck-and-neck, while in the junior section three teams were practically tied until the middle of September.

Brooklyn emerged victorious in both sections. In the first division it scored eight victories, lost on two occasions and had two draws, with a percentage of .800. Bensonhurst finished in second place, with nine victories and three defeats, all of which were sustained at the hands of the champions. Manhattan was victorious on three occasions and suffered six defeats, while Kings County had but one win against ten losses. In the junior division both Brooklyn and Bensonhurst were charged with an equal number of defeats, but Brooklyn had one more victory to its credit. Kings County was well in the running until the last two games, when a double defeat by Brooklyn caused the team to fall into third position.

J. L. Poyer of Brooklyn won the batting prize for the seventh time, eclipsing the former record held by M. R. Cobb, who captured it six times. He had the splendid average of 70.42, with an aggregate number of runs of 493 and a high score of 86. H. Poyer of Brooklyn was second, with a much smaller average—24.54—and C. E. Blades of Bensonhurst was third with figures of 22.77.

J. H. Briggs of Brooklyn duplicated his success of last year and won the bowling prize with 31 wickets, captured at an average of 6.48. He was closely followed by Harry Rushton of Brooklyn, whose figures were 6.63, while H. Tyers of Manhattan was an excellent third with 6.75.

W. B. Ottewell of Bensonhurst was easily first among the second section batsmen and won the batting prize in that division with an average of 24.40, compiled in ten innings. He also scored the highest individual contribution with 72. H. Stevenson, of the newly organized St. George Club, was second, with figures of 19.88, while J. Evelyn of Bensonhurst followed with an average of 18.50.

A. L. Gresham of Bensonhurst did fine work with the ball in the junior division and captured the bowling prize, with a record of 39 wickets, taken at a cost of 201 runs, giving him an average of 5.15. H. Stevenson of St. George was second, with 37 wickets, at an average of 7.64, while G. E. Taylor of Manhattan was third, with figures of 8.04 for 25 wickets secured.

The standing of the clubs, with batting and bowling figures, follows:

NEW YORK AND NEW JERSEY CRICKET ASSOCIATION.

President, Harry Manley; Vice-Presidents, Burcham Harding and Frank C. Kaye; Treasurer, A. H. Waldron; Secretary, F. F. Kelly, 365 West 116th Street, New York.

The championship competition was won by the New York Veteran Cricketers' Association team, which won five games, drew four and lost only one. Staten Island finished second, followed by Bensonhurst and Paterson, with Richmond County and Manor Field bringing up the rear in the order named.

To the Veterans also fell one of the chief individual honors, inasmuch as A. S. Durrant carried off the batting prize with an average of 44.25. A. Hoskings, another Veteran, was placed second, with G. E. Blades of Bensonhurst third.

H. Smith of Paterson heads the bowling figures for the season with an average of 5.32. H. R. Nicoll of Staten Island, who was placed second with an average of 8.09, captured 44 wickets, the largest number credited to any bowler during the season. Another Paterson bower, H. Jackson, took third place in the association list.

The official club and individual figures follow:

NEW YORK VETERAN CRICKETERS' ASSOCIATION.

President, Burcham Harding; Vice-Presidents, A. S. Durrant, F. P. Rogers and R. J. Danby; Treasurer, F. C. Kaye; Secretary, F. F. Kelly, 365 West 116th Street, New York.

The season of 1913 was a most notable one for the New York Veteran Cricketers' Association, not only for the fact that they won the championship of the New York and New Jersey Cricket Association, but also owing to the keen interest of the captain, J. S. Bretz, it was made possible for the Australian team to play a game against the club. Another notable event was the trip to Bermuda. The club also scored victories over Haverford College (twice), Montreal Athletic Association and the Brooklyn Club, champions of the Metropolitan District Cricket League. Summary:

COLUMBIA OVAL CRICKET CLUB, NEW YORK.

President, T. C. Cliff; Secretary, A. Jeffery, 1035 Fifth Avenue, New York; Captain, George Shaw.

The season just closed has resulted in the Columbia Oval club being returned winner of the Van Cortlandt Park Cricket League with an unbeaten record, having played twelve games, eleven of which were won and one drawn, averaging 1,000 per cent. Incidentally, since the above league was formed in 1910, the club has captured the pennant three years out of four.

The outstanding feature of the games has been the all-around excellence of L. P. Camacho, who led the league and the club, with an average of 41. In all games during the season he made over 1,000 runs, for an average of 50. In bowling, he captured 31 wickets for an average of 4.50. Dr. F. Mahabir follows him closely, with a batting average of 23 in league games, and for all games played during the season he has an average of 90. The real leader in bowling is the captain, George S. Shaw, who has captured 57 wickets during the season, with an average of 4.14. A. H. Dovey, E. Tuppen, H. H. Shanholt and T. W. Holbrook all have double figure averages.

Of the friendly games played, the club won 16 and lost 2.

Some individual performances during the season were as follows:

J. E. Gillette, in a game played against the steamship Baltic, on August 31, took the whole 10 wickets of his opponents for 33 runs, which is a wonderful performance, and seldom accomplished.

A. P. Jeffery batted through the innings carrying his bat without scoring a run against the steamship Minnewaska.

HAVERFORD COLLEGE CRICKET PAVILION.

A. Reid, on August 16, took 6 wickets for no runs against Brooklyn—Team B.

Altogether the club had a most successful year, and was honored by having two representatives selected to play against the Australians, namely, Messrs. L. P. Camacho and F. Mahabir.

On July 23, Columbia Oval Cricket Club, Team B, vs. Laplan Cricket Club, Dr. F. Mahabir performed the hat trick.

CAMERON CRICKET CLUB, NEW YORK.

President, R. O. Slater; Vice-President, E. Pickford; Captain, J. Sinclair; Vice-Captain, E. Goodman; Scorer, Philip Hale; Secretary and Treasurer, Edward Shaw, 2246 Washington Avenue, New York.

The above club had a very successful and enjoyable season, playing altogether thirty games, of which twenty were won, six lost and four drawn. In the Van Cortlandt Park Cricket League twelve games were played, ten being won and two lost. The Camerons were runners-up in the league and won the league prize for second place. Several of their members were prominent in the league averages. J. Halliwell had the honor of being placed at the top in the league averages, taking 24 wickets at a cost of 2.37 each, and was the winner of the league bowling prize. F. S. Hall was also very prominent and bowled remarkably well throughout the season, taking 39 wickets at a cost of 3.53, and finished in second place in the league averages. S. C. Welch also bowled well, taking 34 wickets at a cost of 4.58, and being placed near the top in the league averages.

1, W. C. Brinton, Haverford College, Pa., Canadian tour averages—Batting 20.00, bowling 8.86, top score 90; 2, L. Camacho, Columbia Oval, winner batting prize, Van Cortlandt Park League; 3, H. R. Nicoll, Staten Island C C

J. Sinclair was the leader in the club batting averages in several games and was second in the league averages. In several games his steady batting turned what looked like defeat to victory. C. C. Pickford showed marked improvement in batting throughout the season, being placed second in club and third in league averages. He also took the most catches during the season, with 11. S. C. Welch was a close second, with 9.

WEST INDIAN CRICKET CLUB, TEAM A.

Secretary, A. F. Harding, care of Otis Elevator Co., New York.

In game played by West Indian C.C. against Veterans C.C., on June 14, 1913, S. Alleyne played a beautiful innings of 42, and the bowling of F. Hinds was magnificent. He got on a considerable lot of work on the ball, capturing 6 wickets for 2 runs.

West Indian C.C. vs. Pickwick, on June 21, R. Olliverre gave a splendid exhibition of hitting, making several 6's, and at the call of time was not out for a well played 57. S. Alleyne again distinguished himself with the willow, contributing a valuable 57. R. Olliverre carried off the bowling honors, taking 6 wickets for 20 runs.

West Indian C.C. vs. Paterson, on July 4, F. Hinds played a faultless innings of 55 not out. His cutting and off driving was particularly beautiful. R. Olliverre, R. Cook and O. Hope also played beautiful innings.

West Indian C.C. declared their innings for 224 runs for 5 wickets, against their opponents' 65 runs.

West Indian C.C. vs. Spartans, on July 12, S. Alleyne was the hero of the day, playing a faultless innings of 55, including several boundaries.

West Indian C.C. vs. Pickwick, R. Olliverre played a wonderful innings of 105 runs, not out, being the only batsman to get the coveted century. He scored all around the wicket. His driving, cutting and lay glancing was a revelation to watch. F. Hinds bowled in remarkable form, capturing 4 wickets for 7 runs.

West Indian C.C. vs. Orients, on August 16, R. Olliverre again distinguished himself with the willow, making a beautiful 52.

West Indian C.C. vs. Spartans, on August 23, W. Gibbs gave us a fine exhibition of cricket, and one which had not been witnessed up to that time during the past season. He contributed a beautiful innings of 70 runs. J. Hollingsworth also played a valuable innings of 45 not out.

West Indian C.C. vs. Veterans, on September 6, R. Cook played his usual dashing innings, making 53 in faultless style.

West Indian C.C. played eleven games during the season of 1913, having met defeat but once, being defeated by Orient Cricket Club, and therefore is the champion club of Cosmopolitan Cricket League for the season.

R. Olliverre won the batting average of team A for season of 1913, with an average of 65.8, being the only batsman to make a century.

F. Hinds won the bowling average of team A, having the honor of doing the hat trick on one occasion.

CHICAGO VS. AUSTRALIANS.

Looking back on the year 1913, the Buffalo Cricket Club find that the season was the best they ever had. The same number of games were played as during the year 1912, with exactly the same result, won 7 and lost 3, but the record is considerably better, considering that the club played against better class teams by far than the teams they played against during 1912.

The Niagara Falls teams and the Welland team being defunct, the secretary had to look around for matches, which are very hard to get, considering the long distances that have to be traversed to make up for the loss of the Niagara Falls and Welland clubs. St. Albans, Dovercourt, Ridley College and other Canadian teams were played and the local club was only defeated by St. Albans team of Toronto.

Unfortunately several members have been lost to the club, Maspero having gone to Los Angeles and Cox to Cleveland, but nevertheless the club is looking forward to making 1914 better than 1913.

The following is the record of the Buffalo Cricket Club during the year 1913: Lost at Ridley College, Ont., on June 7, by 69 runs. Won at Ridley College, Ont., on June 21, by 24 runs. S. M. Worm scored 21 runs and C. A. Worm took 7 wickets for 13 runs in this match. On Saturday, June 28, defeated Riverdale of Toronto by 68 runs. C. A. Worm took 7 wickets for 1 run and scored 16 runs, and Stanley Worm obtained a nice 29 in this match. Friday, July 4, at Cleveland, against the Western Reserve Club, in the first innings Buffalo scored 116 runs—Stanley Worm 33, C. A. Worm 15, H. Freeman, Sr., 13, and Tom Wells 10. All played nice cricket in this innings. Forty-four was all that Western Reserve could get against the bowling of C. A. and Stanley Worm, C. A. taking 8 wickets for 15 runs. In the second innings the Western Reserve managed to reach a 100 runs, thanks to some great playing by the Reverend Tisdall and Ragsby, who scored 37 and 32, respectively. This left the Buffalo team with fifteen minutes to go 18 runs to win, C. A. Worm making 25 not out and Stanley Worm 17 not out. In the match at Rochester, on July 19, on a very poor wicket, the Buffalo team was defeated by the British-Americans by 43 runs. On August 9, at Jamestown, the Buffalo team defeated Jamestown by 7 runs, Maspero saving the match for Buffalo by scoring 22 runs. On August 16 the St. Albans team of Toronto defeated the locals, at Front, rather easily. On August 28 the Buffalo team easily accounted for the British-Americans of Rochester, at Buffalo, C. A. Worm taking 7 wickets for 5 runs in this match. Jamestown was again defeated by the Buffalo team on Labor Day, at Buffalo, by 50 runs, C. A. Worm scoring 50 and Pickard 23. In the last match of the season, at Buffalo, the Dovercourt Cricket team of Toronto was defeated by 61 runs.

Secretary, Harold Williamson, 10 Clay Street, New Bedford, Mass.

The Hathaway Cup, Times Cup and William Taylor Cup were all captured by the Hathaway-Portuguese Club, who finished the league season of 1913 with eleven victories out of twelve, losing one game to the New Bedford Club by the small score of 42 to 25. A. Isidore captured the batting prize with the splendid figures of 36.71 per innings, and was also leading bowler, with 31 wickets for 2.54, his team mate, M. Brito, running him a close second in each department.

In the annual interstate game with Rhode Island, the New Bedford League secured its third successive victory by 208 to 69, Luiz Santos (85) and A. Isidore (31) creating a record partnership in New Bedford cricket by amassing 113 runs for the first wicket.

HATHAWAY-PORTUGUESE CRICKET CLUB, NEW BEDFORD, MASS.

Secretary, J. Santos, Box 419, New Bedford, Mass.

The club was again successful in securing the championship of the New Bedford District League, and during the season won twelve games, lost nine and drawing one each. A. Isidore received prizes for first batting and bowling honors, M. Brito being an easy second. The team's supremacy was demonstrated by batting figures of 15.81 per wicket against 3.95 by opponents, Isidore's best bowling performances being 8 wickets for 1 run against the New Bedfords, on July 19, at the Howland Village grounds. The batting and bowling averages follow:

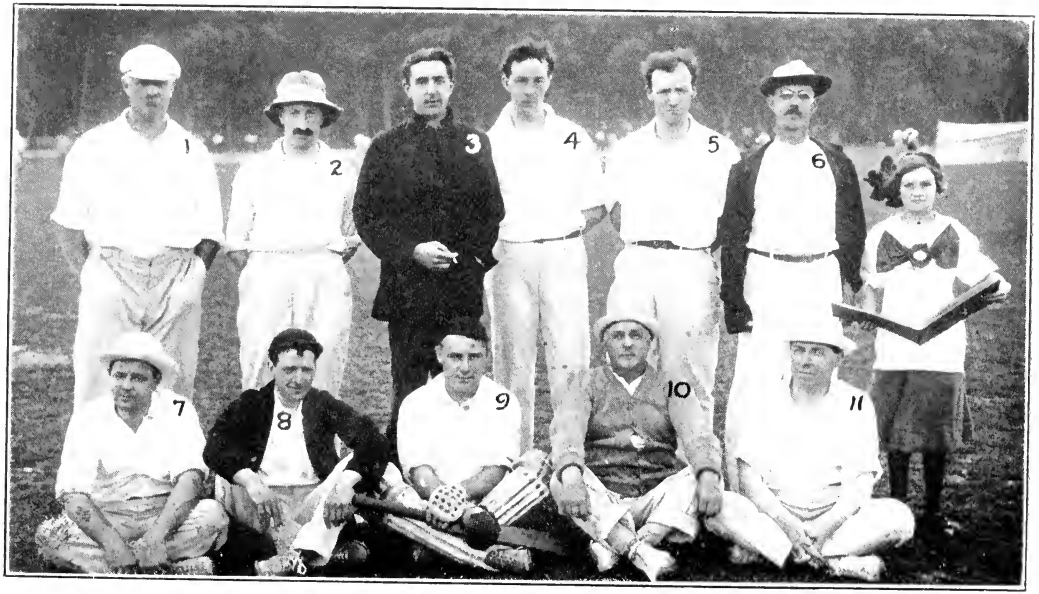
NEW BEDFORD (MASS.) CRICKET CLUB.

Secretary, W. Brierley, 19 Ashley Street, New Bedford, Mass.

The club had a successful season during 1913, being runners-up in the League to the Hathaway-Portuguese, winning 8 games, losing 5 and drawing 3. The batting was of a much higher quality than previous years, no fewer than five persons reaching double figures, Len Mellor nosing out first place by a not out display in the final game, with Tom Beck an easy first in the bowling line, with 67 wickets for 4.47.



MANHATTAN CRICKET CLUB.

BAY VIEW CRICKET CLUB, NEW BEDFORD, MASS.

Secretary, Frank H. Buckley, Swift Street, New Bedford, Mass. Games won 4, lost 7, drawn 4.

The club did not have a very successful season from a playing standpoint, although they put up two new records, which kept the club in the forefront of local cricket. Against Brockton they passed the century mark, being the first team to achieve that honor on the Brockton ground for a period of three years.

Harold Wall was an easy first in the batting honors with an average of 22.30, and made a record by being the first player to score a century in local league games, batting out 102 not out against the West Indians on August 9, at the Brock avenue grounds. Captain A. Bradshaw was second in batting, while Robert Scott carried off the bowling honors, with Harold Wall close up.

Cricket in Pennsylvania

CRICKET IN PHILADELPHIA.

By H. H. Cornish.

The outstanding features of the Philadelphia cricket season were the visits of the Australian and Incogniti cricket teams. The Australians came first and proved themselves one of the best, if not the best, teams that has ever invaded this country. Although they accounted for the teams representing all Philadelphia with comparative ease, to the Germantown Cricket Club belongs the honor of being the only team in the country to lower the colors of the Antipodeans. The fact that Germantown played twelve men and that J. N. Crawford was not playing for the Australians does not detract a great deal from the merit of the victory of the club. With only eleven men Germantown would have won just the same, but there might have been a different story to tell had the visitors been able to avail themselves of the bowling of Crawford.

The players on the Incogniti team made themselves immensely popular, and it is safe to say that a more popular team never visited Philadelphia. They were good cricketers, too, and this is proved by the fact that they lost only one match in six, won four and drew one. In the match with the Gentlemen of Philadelphia, on September 12, 13 and 15, they were defeated, after a most exciting finish, by only three runs. It is not at all unlikely that the Incogniti Cricket Club will visit America again in the near future, and it would not be at all surprising if the visit takes place this year. In any event, they will be assured of a hearty welcome.

Local cup competitions were curtailed somewhat owing to the visit of the Australians. The breaking up of the Belmont Cricket Club was a sad blow to the game and one from which it will take a long time to recover. With the disbandment of Belmont, J. B. King retired from the game, and those who are at all familiar with his records will realize how sadly he was missed against the Australians and the Incogniti Cricket Club. He did take part in one game and proved, with practically no practice, of immense value to his side. Playing for the Philadelphia Cricket Club against the "Incogs," he captured seven wickets for 47 runs in the first innings and five for 49 in the second. It is quite probable that Bart King's retirement is only temporary. Philadelphia cricket can ill afford to do without him, and it is to be hoped that if he is prevailed upon to play again this season that he will continue to play for many a season to come.

Quite a feature of the season was the junior tournament at the Philadelphia Cricket Club. This is an annual affair and is promoted by the Philadelphia Cricket Club to encourage the rising generation. It certainly serves its purpose, and quite a number of promising young players were unearthed at last year's tournament, notably G. T. Hawley, who had an average of 44.57 for seven completed innings; S. L. Robinson, average 36.80; A. L. Gillespie, average 34.00, and L. Siegel, average 31.00. In bowling P. Lee, with 36 wickets at a cost of 6.66 runs apiece, and F. A. Henry, 30 wickets at 7.10 apiece, carried off the honors.

As usual, the Inter-State League enjoyed a very successful season, and in spite of what we hear of the decline of cricket, the organization is probably stronger than ever. After years of striving, West Philadelphia won the championship in the first division. The club went through the season without a defeat, winning nine games and drawing three. Robin Hood won the championship of the second division with a record of fourteen games won, one lost and one drawn. The veteran Ben Haigh headed the batting averages in the first division with 36.77 runs per innings and W. R. Lupton topped the bowlers with 37 wickets obtained at a cost of 4.35 runs apiece.

In the second division, J. Highfield occupied first place in batting with an average of 26.27 runs per innings, and J. W. Brigham led the bowlers with 48 wickets, obtained at the ridiculously small cost of 4.77 runs each.

PHILADELPHIA CUP.

COMPILED BY T. IRVING.

The Philadelphia Cup contest suffered more in respect to abandoned ures than in any other period since it has been established. This in- ference was due to the unusual amount of international cricket sup- d by the Australians and the Incogniti.
n a purely local season the Associated Clubs made every endeavor to ng their scheduled matches to a conclusion, but with such extraor- ary competition it was almost impossible to adhere to any regulated ler.
Germantown "B" were the winners of the competition as far as it nt, and W. L. Caufman, their leader, must be congratulated, for there not many enthusiasts in Philadelphia who spend more time and ught in improving and encouraging the younger element after their rsery days are over.

A GROUP OF CANADIAN PLAYERS.

ST. GEORGE CRICKET LEAGUE, PHILADELPHIA.

President, Albert Milnes; Vice-President, Thomas H. Russell; Secretary-Treasurer, Frederick W. Dodd, 906 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

THE CUP PRESENTED.

About 150 members crowded into Victoria Lodge rooms on October 13th to witness the official presentation of the cup and other prizes. President Albert Milnes was in the chair and after an address of welcome presided over a varied and entertaining program of songs, recitations, etc. The cup was formally presented to John Bright team, in an interesting address delivered by Grand Vice-President Robert Sandaver, who reviewed the splendid results accruing to the Order, through the influence of cricket. Captain John Kenyon accepted the cup on behalf of his team, in a few well-chosen remarks. A handsome gold charm was presented to John Kenyon and to George Hargreaves, who had made the best bowling and best batting averages, respectively. The Robin Hood team, who finished second in the league race, was presented the silver shield, and was received by Captain Thomas Schofield, who expressed his pleasure at once more carrying off a prize for his club. Each presentation was followed by a hearty round of applause.

President Milnes sprung a surprise when he called for the league secretary, Fred. W. Dodd, and in a brief speech presented to him, on behalf of the league, a handsome parlor clock with a gold tablet bearing this inscription:

Presented to
FRED W. DODD
By St. George Cricket League
For Faithful Services,
1913.

As the beautiful gift was handed to the surprised recipient he was greeted with an outburst of applause and cheers that nearly shook the building. After recovering from his bewilderment Bro. Dodd heartily thanked the members of the league for their kindness.

Features of the evening were recitation by D. M. Henry Green and an address by Bro. Harry Johnson, president of the Interstate Cricket League.

Among those who participated in the program were Thomas Schofield, Richard Boardman, Thomas H. Draper, John Wiggins, Keystone Orchestra and others. A bountiful repast was served.

The final games were played on September 13th and 20th and resulted in victories for John Bright and Robin Hood Lodges, making these two the winner and runner-up in the cup competition, the former receiving the cup and the latter being awarded the silver shield. The final result of the games is as follows:

	W.	L.	D.	Pts.		W.	L.	D.	Pts.
John Bright	7	1	0	14	Southwark	1	6	1	3
Robin Hood	5	2	1	11	Alfred the Great	1	7	0	2
Victoria	5	3	0	10

The committee appointed to compute the averages have completed their work and report that Brother J. Kenyon of John Bright won the prize for bowling, and G. Hargreaves of John Bright won the batting prize. Among those qualified were the following:

1, Dunford; 2, Rev. E. R. Bartlett; 3, Rose; 4, Money; 5, Curtis; 6, Tigar; 7, Miller; 8, Wells; 9, Cave, Capt.; 10, d'Easum; 11, Hebron; 12, Brown.

Cricket in the Middle West

CHICAGO CRICKET ASSOCIATION.

President, M. Quinn; Vice-President, A. W. Anderson; Secretary-Treasurer, T. O. Stokes, Room 101, 547 West Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, Ill.

The season of 1913 in Chicago is memorable from the fact that, for the first time in the history of the Chicago Cricket Association, no team was entered from the Wanderers Club, owing to their inability to secure a representative eleven, their fine grounds at Parkside being used for tennis during the season. The few players from that club who remained in the city were distributed amongst the other clubs, with the result that the championship was in doubt until the last game, and it was unfortunate that this had to be decided on a technicality, the Pullman Club proving the champions.

The batting averages are somewhat lower than those of other years, whilst the bowling are much improved, which probably accounts for the decrease in batting.

The visit of the Australians did much to revive the interest in cricket, and though the results of their games were somewhat disconcerting to the local cricketers, it is expected that the influences of the visit will be felt this season.

Two new clubs were organized during the year, one at Lake Forest and one at Waukeegan, and it is expected they will join the association in 1914. There is also a possibility of a new club being formed in the city at that time. Taken all in all, the prospects for cricket in Chicago in 1914 are exceedingly bright.

The announcement is made that Charles W. Jackson of Chicago is to sail for Australia in October next, to take up his residence in Sydney. Few persons have done more to encourage and foster the game of cricket in America than "Pop" Jackson, as he is familiarly known by all with whom he has come in contact. He was one of the founders of the well-known Manhattan Club of New York, doing a great deal in its earlier days to place it upon a sound financial and membership basis. For the past twenty-five years he has been identified with cricket and all kindred sports in Chicago. At the present time he is the controlling influence of the famous Wanderers Club, owning the majority of the stock in the organization and occupying the position of treasurer. Of a kindly disposition, ever ready with his purse to help forward the game and do his share in hard work to place cricket on a higher plane, "Pop" will be missed by a great many when he takes up his residence in the Antipodes. He will leave behind him many friends and admirers. Mr. Jackson, who is well over middle age, has not been well during the winters the past few years, and the doctors have advised a change of climate. Some years ago he visited Australia, touring the country with the English cricket team.

PULLMAN (ILL.) CRICKET CLUB.

President, Benjamin Aston; Vice-President, William Cummings; Secretary and Treasurer, R. H. Adams, 310 West 110th Place, Chicago, Ill.; Executive Committee, Benjamin Aston, Captain F. Wild, W. Scowcroft, R. H. Adams, William Cummings and W. H. Dixon. Games played 12; won 9, lost 2, drawn 1. Individual high scores—William Balster 62, W. H. Dixon 44, V. J. Smale 27, J. B. Flynn 42, Rev. T. Hughes 37.

C. W. Jackson and William Balster, late of the disbanded Wanderers Cricket Club, cast their lot with the Pullman Cricket Club, and it was owing to the brilliant cricket of William Balster that materially helped to win the championship of the Chicago Cricket Association for the Pullman Club. W. H. Dixon and J. P. Flinn, by splendid display of batting, pulled the Pullman Cricket Club to victory after the South Park Cricket Club considered the game won. Also William Balster, on another occasion, when playing against the Hyde Park Cricket Club in the deciding game of the season, compiled 19 runs and broke the bowling of the Hyde Park Club, opening the way for V. J. Smale to come in and win the game with a splendid 28 runs, which included five boundaries, and eventually winning the match. In another game, against the Chicago Cricket Club, William Balster made 62 not out.

F. Wild was chairman of the committee on arrangements for the Australian cricket team, and B. Govier, W. H. Dixon, W. Scowcroft and A. T. Campbell of Pullman were picked to play against the Australians in their matches in Chicago.

Club was not fully organized until last season and played only a few games. No unusually high schores were made and the bowling averages were not exceptional.

CLEVELAND (OHIO) CRICKET CLUB.

The officers for the season of 1914 are: President, J. W. Pulford; Vice-President, J. Almond; Treasurer, A. B. Burk; Financial Secretary, G. H. B. Jenkins; Secretary, G. H. Judge, 252 The Arcade, Cleveland, Ohio.

Overcoming obstacles that seemed, for a time, to threaten its existence, the Cleveland Cricket Club succeeded in making the season of 1913 one of the best in its history. Compelled to seek other playing grounds, the club, late in the spring, was granted the use of the Garfield Park grounds, in the southeastern portion of the city. The club rejoined the Middle West Cricket League, which, with the Canton team, made six members, played its entire schedule, winning six out of ten games, and played a total of sixteen games, winning ten, one being uncompleted on account of rain. In league matches, two games were won from both Akron and Canton, one won and one lost to Britannia of Cleveland and Youngstown, and both games with Pittsburgh Field Club were lost. One game was lost to Alliance, two won from Alliance, one from Ravenna and the Cleveland Worsted Mills. As in the past few seasons, the bulk of the bowling fell to Duke, captain of the team, and to Bamford. The batting side was stronger than in previous years, Haggas and Dunn being the mainstays. One feature of the season was the return of some of the older Cleveland cricketers to the game.

From the interest displayed toward the close of the season, the outlook for 1914 is prpmising. It is hoped to be able to resume games with Buffalo and Detroit, and a possible trip to Canada. An attempt will also be made to increase the spread of the game in the State, where cricket was played in six cities last year. The averages follow:

WESTERN RESERVE CRICKET CLUB, CLEVELAND, OHIO.

President, Charles E. Taylor; Vice-President, A. C. Speed; Secretary-Treasurer, J. W. Smith, 1560 West Third Street, Cleveland, Ohio. Owing to club house being burned down on August 26 and the score books destroyed, the records of the past season are unavailable.

COPPER COUNTRY CRICKET LEAGUE, MICHIGAN.

Secretary, William Reid, Hancock, Mich. The season of 1913 was not as successful as the players desired it to be, but, under the circumstances, they should congratulate themselves that the schedule was almost completed when the labor dispute and the consequent closing down of all the mines, together with the departure of many players to other parts, put an end to any further effort to finish the games. The post-season game did not take place as in former years, although an effort was made to choose a team. Because of the disorganization of the clubs and the inability to have them represented as they should be, the post-season game was discontinued. The quality of play during 1913 was up to former years, notwithstanding some of the players had returned to England. It is hoped, however, to see the familiar faces again in 1914.

Mohawk has once more demonstrated its ability to be in the front rank, by winning both the Norman W. Haire and the Captain Trevarrow Cups. There can be no doubt about their ability as a team. Every season since the commencement of the league, if they did not actually win the cups, they were so close as to be very good seconds, and the reason is that their players keep together and therefore know each other's strength.

The following is the standing of the clubs when the season so abruptly closed:

DENVER (COLO.) CRICKET CLUB.

Secretary, R. B. Hosker, 237 Irvington Place, Denver. Little or no cricket was played last season. A great effort is going to be made to revive the game in the city and the State.

KANSAS CITY (MO.) CRICKET CLUB.

President, E. S. Ruff; First Vice-President, F. J. Seager; Second Vice-President, David Hamer; Secretary-Treasurer, Edward Cartmell, 905 Main Street, Kansas City, Mo.; Captain, S. H. Shaw; Vice-Captain, J. A. Gunn. The Kansas City Cricket Club showed a decided improvement over 1912. The membership was stronger and the games better. Owing to the untiring efforts of Messrs. H. C. Davis and G. A. Murray, the club secured two new grounds. The City Board of Park Commissioners laid out and returfed a piece of ground at Thirty-ninth Street and Gillham

Road for net practice and L. N. Magill generously permitted the club to use the Country Club polo ground for match purposes. Home and away matches were played with the Kansas City Country Club, the Santa Fe team of Topeka, Kans., and the British-Americans. In all, seven games were played, six being won and one lost, the British-Americans winning the first match by 63 runs to 62. The chief difficulty is in securing a centrally located ground, easily accessible to all members, but if interest still keeps up, this difficulty may be overcome in the near future.

GOLDEN GATE CRICKET CLUB, SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

The 1913 cricket season in San Francisco and vicinity was most prosperous, particularly from the standpoint of the Golden Gate Cricket Club, it being the first time in the history of the club that they succeeded in winning the championship. Too much cannot be said in praise of Captain H. A. Oxenham, whose all-around ability as batsman and bowler is well known there and in the East. His prowess with the bat and ball contributed largely to the success of the club; always keen and energetic on the field. Towards the latter part of the season Mr. Oxenham was compelled to resign the captaincy, owing to calls of business which took him to Alaska. On the eve of his departure the members of the Golden Gate club, to show their appreciation of his splended services, presented him with a set of gold cuff buttons.

To revert to the season's play, the league schedule comprised ten games, and the result was as follows: Played 10; won 7, lost 1, drawn 2; points 16. The club went through the season undefeated until the very last game, when, owing to accidents and the encroachment of foot ball, only half a dozen players put in an appearance, only to be soundly thrashed. The club's success was mainly due to their able, energetic secretary, C. E. Stevenson, whose efforts resulted in a full turnout every Sunday afternoon. He was also responsible for the visit of the Golden Gates to Los Angeles during the Fourth of July holidays. The outcome of the two games played there was a clean sweep for the visitors, as the following scores will testify: First game—Golden Gate, 105; Los Angeles, 61. Second game—Golden Gate, 177 for 3 wickets; Los Angeles, 106.

Played 10; won 7, lost 1, drawn 2; points 16.

Following are the batting and bowling averages for the season:

PORTLAND (ORE.) CRICKET CLUB.

Secretary, J. C. Cummings, Wells Fargo Building, Portland, Ore. Portland Cricket Club last year was short lived. They played only from about the middle of April until the last of June. The lack of players was so discouraging, as well as the financial support, that they thought it would be best to give up cricket playing, at least during the past summer. They are in hopes of reviving the club again this year, but with what success it is hard to say.

The fact of Portland being isolated, in a way, or at least removed by a considerable railroad fare from those cities in which cricket is played, is mainly responsible for the lack of interest. If they could have outside matches there would not be the slightest doubt of having a flourishing club.

CRICKET IN NOVA SCOTIA.

By J. H. Wolfe Beach.

For some unaccountable reason cricket is not a very popular game in Nova Scotia, a fact which is to be regretted by all the followers of the English national summer pastime. Years ago we had many cricketers in Nova Scotia, but of late base ball has gotten a firm hold on the sporting public, and owing to the fact that there are but few grounds fit for cricket games and the gradual tendency of our Old Country boys to take up base ball, the old game appears to be dying out.

Last season was a most unsatisfactory one. The Nova Scotia Cricket League was unfinished, the Wanderers of Halifax being the only club which got through with all its fixtures. Sydney only played three games, the Garrison three and Stellarton one, so that nobody could claim the championship for 1913.

The Halifax Wanderers had a fairly strong side, winning three and losing three of their games. They were defeated by Sydney, Stellarton and the Garrison, and won the return games from these clubs. The Garrison was going strong, but, owing to summer camp duty, was unable to get a team to go on tour to Sydney and Stellarton. Stellarton went to Halifax to meet the Wanderers and Garrison, but, while they were able to play off their game with the first named, rain prevented the match with the Garrison being played.

George Bateman, formerly a player on the Dublin Phœnix Club, one of the best sides in Ireland, was captain of the Wanderers. A useful bat and a tricky bowler and grand fielder, he proved a splendid leader. H. Davey failed to keep up his record as a pretty bat. He made one or two innings of 40 and over, but failed to shine in the important games. H. R. Jones and G. E. DeWolfe both showed consistent batting form all season. The Garrison had a strong batting side. Major Kemble, Captain Cobbett, who with his score of 165 was top scorer for the season in Nova Scotia; Gunner Knightley, Captain Willetts and Captain Marks all proved first-class batsmen. Colonel Vawdrey, who was in Halifax for the summer, was off color. He came to Halifax with a great reputation, but did not seem to get on with the matting wicket.

The Garrison League was led by No. 2 Company, R.C.G.A., one of the strongest sides that has played in Halifax Garrison for many years. They went through the season without a defeat.

Several friendly games were played in Halifax. J. H. Wolfe Beach's Eleven defeated No. 1 Company, R.C.G.A., 158—76; Wanderers defeated J. H. Wolfe Beach's team, 98—43 and 165—128; Wanderers defeated Fenwicks (colored), 216—35; Garrison defeated Wanderers, 194—134; Wanderers defeated Garrison, 127—115.

One pleasing feature of the cricket games in Halifax is to see the old timers lining up at all the games. As these old chaps sit on the benches lined around the Garrison grounds they tell the younger folk stories of the achievements of such men as W. A. Henry in the old days, but all join with the writer in regretting that the game is not as popular as it should be. A move is to be made this year to get a suitable playing pitch for civilian clubs. The military have been kind in the past in lending their ground for friendly fixtures, but nothing will ever be done to advance cricket until suitable grounds are procured for the civilian element.

The 1913 season of Division A of the Montreal and District Amateur Cricket League was one of the most successful in the history of the league. The majority of the matches were keenly contested, while better bowling and batting marked the season. In this division A. D. Ince of the McGill Club carried off the batting honors, while W. C. Baber of the same club carried off the bowling honors. During the season A. Anthony of Westmount scored the greatest number of runs and D. B. Smail of the same club secured the greatest number of wickets. A. D. Ince scored the only century, making in one of his matches 101 not out. The hat trick was performed during the season by D. S. Gough of Montreal, A. D. Ince of McGill, A. D. Robinson of Verdun and D. A. Clatsam of Point St. Charles. The following are the batting and bowling averages of Division A clubs:

The 1913 championship of Division B of the Montreal and District Cricket League was won by Verdun II. in a decisive manner. They lost their first game, then set up a string of thirteen victories. The batting and bowling honors of this division were both gained by E. P. Wallace of the B. N. I., who had a remarkable season with both bat and ball. G. C. Jones of McGill II. scored the most runs, and also made the highest score, 94, and C. Lewis of Verdun II. captured the most wickets, 49. The hat trick was performed by A. Beacock of Westmount, twice, and C. Lewis of Verdun.

HAMILTON (ONT.) CRICKET CLUB.

President, S. F. Washington, K.C.; Vice-Presidents, Kerwin Martin, D'Arcy Martin; Captain, A. H. Gibson; Secretary, T. H. Stinson; Treasurer, H. G. Wright; Committee, C. B. Marsland, H. G. Washington, E.

V. Wright. During season of 1913 Hamilton played only 10 matches, winning 6, losing 3 and tieing 1. The club won the Albany Club Cup from the Toronto Cricket Club, by winning one match and tieing the other match with that club, the cup having been presented in 1912 for annual competition between the two clubs. Scores: At Hamilton—Hamilton 257, Toronto 62; at Toronto—Hamilton 88, Toronto 88. Batting—A. H. Gibson, highest average, 25.40; highest score, 110, the century being made at Hamilton against Toronto on July 1. Bowling—E. V. Wright, best average (figures not compiled).

TORONTO CRICKET LEAGUE.

President, L. Rawlinson; Vice-President, A. E. Lyon; Secretary-Treasurer, W. H. Garrett, 597 Christie Street, Toronto; Committee, H. Dean (Rosedale), A. D. Cordner (Toronto), H. Webber (Riverdale), W. Paris (Grace Church), H. Hancock (St. Albans), A. E. Jackes (Parkdale), F. Sargent (St. Barnabas), W. Marsden (Aura Lee).

The Rawlinson trophy, denoting the championship of the league, was presented to the champion Toronto C.C. team by President Rawlinson, the donator. E. D. Dimmock received the trophy for the winners. Mr. Rawlinson also presented Hugh Reid of the Rosedale club with a trophy for the highest individual score, 111 not out, made against the Eaton team. Mr. Reid also won the bat for the batting honors in Division A, while T. Swan of the same club led the bowlers for that division. N. Seagram of the Toronto club, however, won the bat for the bowling honors, as Mr. Swan did not compete in enough games to qualify for the bat. In Division B, J. Hutchinson of the St. Barnabas club was the leading batter, with W. Marsden of Grace Church leading the bowlers with the good average of 2.64.

CHURCH AND MERCANTILE CRICKET LEAGUE, TORONTO.

Honorary President, his Worship the Bishop of Toronto: President, A. L. Eastmure; Vice-President, Rev. E. A. Vesey; Secretary-Treasurer, T. P. Wood, 19 Olive Avenue, Toronto; Executive Committee—Reed (Eatons), Robinson (Yorkshire), Watson (Dovercourt), Davis (St. Cyprians), Mucklestone (St. Davids).

Yorkshire Society, who won the championship last season, was presented with the league trophy, while St. Davids, winners of the Eastern section, and runners-up for the cup, were presented with a beautiful shield, nicely mounted, which was presented by A. L. Eastmure, the popular President. The trophy and shield are to be held for one year by the winning club. Over fifty members were present at the meeting.

Yorkshire Society and St. Davids won the championship of the Western and Eastern sections, respectively. The final game was played at St. Albans' grounds on September 13 of last season, and Yorkshire won by 4 runs and 8 wickets. The scores for the two innings were: St. Davids, 27 and 114; Yorkshire, 122 and 23 for 2 wickets.

E. Murray of the Old Country club won the bat for the best batting average, while A. W. Sanders of the St. Davids club won the bat for the best individual score with 72. The high scores were as follows:

STRATFORD (ONT.) CRICKET CLUB.

Honorary President, H. B. Morphy, K.C., M.P.; President, R. Patterson; Vice-President, E. Nettleton; Secretary-Treasurer, H. Wigglesworth, 4 Duke Street, Stratford; Captain, E. Nettleton; Vice-Captain, H. King.

The cricket season of 1913 proved a good one for the Stratford Cricket Club. Most of the players that made the team one to be remembered in 1912 were found eager to continue the good work when 1913 came round. There were a few changes, and most of them were for the good. The member that deserves the most credit is the veteran skipper, E. Nettleton. Although getting along in years, his heart is as young as ever, and the field is always influenced by his good judgment. He is a hard worker in every department and is the most popular man on the team, as the captain always should be. His batting did a lot towards putting the club up to second place in the Western Ontario League. The club played fourteen games. Of these nine were won, four lost and one drawn. The most creditable win was the home game with the London Asylum Club, but they returned the compliment when we journeyed to their ground. One feature of the last game was the hat trick by King, and another the heated argument put up by "Old Sol." Guelph handed out to us the worst defeat, but they are some team. As in the past, we had a few exciting matches, the chief of which was the Paris game, at Stratford. Five balls of the last over had been bowled and Stratford was two runs behind. The last ball, however, looked good to Wigglesworth, who helped it on for 4. Perhaps the most exciting game was the Galt game, at Galt, which ended in a draw, time saving Stratford from defeat. The season found us some good talent and we are looking forward to even better things from them this year. Dyke, a fast bowler and useful bat, was one of the new men. Day and Evans, also new men, promise good things, too. The club has a drawback as regards grounds, but just as long as enough ground can be found to stick up six stumps, cricket will continue in Stratford.

VANCOUVER (B. C.) CRICKET CLUB.

Secretary, K. A. Auty, Denham Court, Vancouver, B. C.

The Vancouver Cricket Club played 19 matches during the past s son, winning 11, losing 5 and drawing 3. No centuries were scored or against the club. F. B. Hurst won the Gardner Johnson batting pr for the highest average for the season, the qualification being a minim of ten innings. F. J. Peers was a very close runner-up. The bowling the club was considerably strengthened last year by the advent of E. Webb, an exceptional left-arm bowler, who, beside being a prolific sco and a safe field, gave the wicket-keepers an unusually good time keepi to him behind the sticks. NEW WESTMINSTER (B. C.) CRICKET CLUB.

President, G. D. Brymner; Vice-Presidents, R. J. Rickman, Cano d'Easum, M.A., L. M. Richardson; Captain, F. C. B. Cave; Vice-Captai W. A. Wells; Honorary Treasurer, Rev. G. A. Ray, M.A.; Honorary Se retary, F. A. Rose, P. O. Box 481, New Westminster, B. C. During se son of 1913 the first eleven played twenty-six matches, winning thirtee losing nine, and four were drawn. For the first time in the annals the club (dating back twenty-five years) a second team was placed in th field for a portion of the season. Five matches were played, of whic two were won and three lost.

Although Thom led the bowling honors with the Westminster Crick Club, champions of the Vancouver and District League, during the pa season, the real honors fell on the shoulders of F. A. Rose, who out twenty-six of the matches played, figured in the bowling of twenty-fi games, securing 101 wickets at an average cost of 11.64. Thom onl played in six games, securing 23 wickets at a cost of 7.30 runs per wicke

The honor of leading the batting averages fell to F. C. B. Cave, th Westminster skipper, who made a name for himself in British Columbi although he started late in the season. Cave's score of 173 against Ced Cottage stood as a record until Beacham of the Burrards compiled 24 in Victoria, playing against the Royals. Thom took second place in ba ting with an average of 25 in his six games. The following are the ave ages compiled by Secretary Rose:

COWICHAN (B. C.) CRICKET CLUB.

Honorary President, Colonel Hobday; President, John Hirsch; Vice- esidents, F. Maitland-Dougall, R. A. Wicks, Captain Clifton, W. H. yward, M.P., Dr. Borcroft, L. W. Huntingdon, Clive Phillipps-Woolley, v. F. G. Christmas; Captain and Treasurer, E. W. Carr Hilton; Vice- ptain and Secretary, H. B. Hayward, Duncan, B. C.; Committee, D. Taylor, W. W. Bundock, G. Curgenven, H. Lipscombe, E. C. Brooke- ith, R. Barkley.
Team A—Games played 22, won 19, lost 3 (including Australia). am B—Games played 8, won 4, lost 4, abandoned 2. Centuries, Team -105 (retired), G. Curgenven vs. Cowichan Bay, at Duncan, June 28;

110, G. Curgenven vs. Vancouver Moths, at Duncan, July 1. Team B—144, R. H. Vaughan vs. University School, at Victoria, July 5. G. Curgenven during the season scored 1,075 runs with average of 37.06, and took 115 wickets, average 9.60 per wicket. Curgenven's two centuries were made in successive matches. The Cowichan eleven made over 250 on the following occasions: 361, vs. Cowichan Bay (Curgenven, 105 not out); 271, vs. Vancouver Moths (Curgenven, 110); 325, vs. Garrison of Victoria (Curgenven 87, Brooke-Smith 89, Vaughan 66); 313, vs. University Incogs (Curgenven 69, Heyward 66, McAdam 83).

Towards the end of the cricket season in British Columbia a Pacific Coast cricket tournament takes place in Victoria. Last year the teams competed and they were divided into two divisions, and the side winning most matches of Division A played the winner of Division B. This is always keenly contested and shows any amount of keenness of the cricket of British Columbia. The winners of Division A were Cowichan and of Division B Oak Bay, Cowichan proving the better team in a well contested final. A large cup was the prize battled for, and added interest was aroused last year, in so far that it is the first in which another club, with the exception of Vancouver and Victoria, has won the cup.

August 25, Cowichan 313 (Curgenven 69, Hayward 66, McAdam 83); University Incogs 76 and 62 (Bagnall, 6 for 40 and 6 for 33); August 26, Cowichan 234 (Curgenven 91, McAdam 40); Vancouver 178 and 139 for 6 wickets; August 28, Cowichan 135 (Curgenven 71) and 239 (Murphy 55, Hills 50); Victoria 62 (Bagnall, 7 for 23) and 114 for 8 (Curgenven, 4 for 47); August 29, Garrison 93 (Curgenven, 6 for 24) and 71 (Curgenven, 5 for 21; Brooke-Smith, 5 for 24); Cowichan 73 (Ashey, 5 for 20) and 97, nine wickets (Curgenven 31) (Ashey, 5 for 41).

This match left Cowichan with five victories and no defeats, while in the "B" half, Oak Bay had won four and lost one and Burrard won four and lost one. This necessitated a semi-final on the Saturday, which Oak Bay won, and the final was played on Monday. Cowichan 231 (Curgenven 56) and 30 for 4 wickets; Oak Bay 123 (Bagnall, 7 for 44) and 172 for 4 declared (Orr 60, Harker 59).

In Curgenven Cowichan possesses the best all-around cricketer in British Columbia, if not in Canadan, and in H. B. Hayward a wicket-keeper far above the average. The club was ably led by Carr Hilton, and, owing to the men working in harmony, a very successful season was enjoyed.

NANAIMO (B. C.) CRICKET CLUB.

sident, F. H. Shepherd, M.P.; Secretary-Treasurer, R. R. Hind- , P. O. Box 655, Nanaimo, B. C.; Captain, William Newbury; Vice- in, A. T. W. Paul. Playing members—H. R. Jepson, F. Jepson, J. n, A. Leighton, L. Shepherd, A. Williamson, R. Battey, H. R. Curry, Vaugh. The club did not do at all well in batting during the sea- f 1913, and there is no interest in the averages. A. Leighton made t out against the Albion C.C., in Victoria, and 74 against the Van- r Moths in a match at home. H. R. Jepson made 83 in a match st the Burrard C.C., played during the Pacific Coast tournament on niversity School ground in Victoria. The club was very strong in ng, and the averages worked out very much alike. Special mention d be made of A. Leighton. He was, perhaps, the most successful r in the Pacific Coast tournament held in Victoria last August, his l being 26 wickets at a cost of 6 runs each. The averages for the n are as follows:

VANCOUVER (B. C.) MOTHS.

retary, C. Illingworth, P. O. Box 1213, Vancouver, B. C.

e Vancouver Moths played 18 matches, won 8, lost 3 and drew 7, have thus done exceptionally well, considering that they have met g the season just past stronger teams than ever before and amongst n may be numbered such teams as Cowichan (winners of the Vic- cricket tournament last year), Victoria and the Victoria Albions. e were also an exceptional number of drawn games, the majority of which, had they been brought to a definite conclusion, would have go into the "won" category. The services of quite a few of the backbo of last year's team have also been requisitioned for the parent team th year. No centuries were scored for, though two were scored against t Moths in 1913, these being: 117 by F. Cave for New Westminster, New Westminster, July 5, and 110 by G. Curgenven for Cowichan, Duncans, July 1.

Auty-Danesborough tops the batting averages with 23.75, this bei approximately five runs lower than 1912's highest. A. Kaye, J. Cra H. G. Sladen, C. Guild, C. Illingworth, H. F. Roden and W. Hearne have been notable contributors with bat and ball. The analysis a averages for 1913 follow:

COMPLETE STATISTICS OF THE TOUR.

Compiled by F. F. Kelly.

The Australian Cricketers had an extraordinarily successful Tour. Out of 53 games played, 49 were won, 3 drawn with one defeat at the hands of the Germantown Cricket Club, who are to be heartily congratulated on their great achievement. Macartney scored over 2,000 runs with seven centuries, whilst Bardsley, with six centuries, Arnott, Cody, Mayne, Crawford, Collins and Emery all scored over 1,000 runs. The team proved themselves to be far too strong for all their opponents. In bowling, Macartney, Crawford, Mailey and Emery carried everything before them. Summary as follows:

CENTURIES HIT IN THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA DURING 1913.

Compiled by F. F. Kelly.

C. G. Macartney and Warren Bardsley, the two famous Australian batsmen, easily led all others. H. R. H. Cobbett, who hit up three centuries, will be remembered as having scored three consecutive centuries in Victoria (British Columbia) in 1906. R. T. Beecham's score of 249 stands as a Canadian record, the previous best being made by G. S. Lyon, 238, in 1894. The list is much larger than usual, but this is accounted for by the presence of the Australian team.

Deaths in 1913

H. W. BROWN, whose death occurred on February 26, at San Francisco, was a native of Australia, and had been connected with cricket in the State of California for over twenty years. He was an active member of the Alameda Club.

KENNETH BRAILSFORD CHADWICK died on September 13, at Brooklyn, at the age of 37 years. Mr. Chadwick was a useful all-round cricketer of the Crescent Athletic Club.

ALBERT H. COLLINS, whose death occurred at St. Michael's Hospital on August 5, was born in England fifty-seven years ago. The "Duke," as he was known, was a sportsman of the old school, a cricketer, a footballer and a follower of most outdoor sports. He went to Canada in 1876, and as a batsman he was best known as a free and hard hitter. He played for Western Ontario against Lord Hawkes' team in 1891. His highest score was made the same year for Toronto Cricket Club vs. Trinity College School, when he hit up 98 and was unfortunately run out.

RALPH CRACKNELL, who died at Boston on June 24, was born in London on May 27, 1860. He came to the United States in 1884 and soon proved himself one of the best bowlers in New England. For Longwood vs. Pawtucket, in 1890, he took 7 wickets for 1 run, and, two years later, obtained 7 for 18 for Fifteen of New England vs. Gentlemen of Ireland. Twice he secured over a hundred wickets in a season, taking 106 for 4.53 in 1891 and 107 for 5.21 in 1905.

JOSEPH CUMMINGS, whose death occurred suddenly on June 15, at Pullman, was born in Durham, July 10, 1861. On going to Chicago in 1886 he first played for the Wanderers Club, and the following year he affiliated himself with the Pullman Cricket Club, and was always an important factor in the success of the club. Mainly through his efforts the club won the championship of the Chicago Cricket Association in 1888, 1889, 1890, 1892, 1893, 1894 and 1895. He headed the batting averages in the championship series in 1887, 1888, 1892, 1893 and 1895, and the bowling in 1888, 1892, 1894 and 1895. He was a punishing bat and a good, fast bowler. His highest scores were: Milwaukee vs. Racine College, 162; Pullman vs. Pastimes of St. Louis, 128.

THEODORE H. MORRIS was born October 10, 1840, and died February 15. Was educated at Haverford College, where he was one of the leading batsmen and a successful underhand bowler. He was a member of the Merion Cricket Club until his death.

DANIEL SMITH NEWHALL, a member of the famous brotherhood, died on July 13, at Philadelphia. Was born April 7, 1849, and was only fifteen years of age when, in 1864, he played for Young America vs. St. George and for Philadelphia vs. New York. He was chosen frequently to represent the United States against Canada, and in 1885 was captain of the first team to defeat an English side, E. J. Sanders' Eleven, by 10 runs. He also captained the Gentlemen of Philadelphia team which visited England in 1889. His highest scores were: 106, for Young America vs. Germantown, in 1876; 119, for Veterans of Philadelphia vs. Catonsville Country Club, in 1898. He was one of the founders of the American Cricketer.

V. V. MURPHY, one of the best known cricketers in British Columbia, was killed in a motor accident, June 9, at McKinnon Junction, age 32. He was born in Ireland, and was a very effective bowler. For the Cowichan Club, in 1912, he took 100 wickets for 8.17 runs each.

GEORGE THOMAS HAYWARD, for many years ground keeper of the Staten Island Club, died October 17. He was born in Bermuda, July 15, 1839, and came to the States in 1857, going to work on the Tribune as a compositor. He left the Tribune in 1863 for the Civil War. After the war he was appointed ground keeper of the St. George Cricket Club, at Hoboken. At the time of his death he was a member of the New York Veterans.

FRANK HOLLOWAY, whose death occurred in September, in Quebec, at the age of 65, was born in England, and was a useful all-round cricketer. At the time of his death was president of the Quebec Cricket Club.

DR. EDWARD RUSSELL OGDEN, whose death occurred on May 15, at Chicago, was born in Oakville, Canada, June 17, 1862. He was educated at Upper Canada College, Toronto, and found a place on the first eleven in 1876 and acted as captain of the college during his last three years. He played for Twenty-two of Canada against Daft's team in 1879 and secured 2 wickets for 11 runs. In 1881, 1883 and 1884 he took part in the international fixtures, and in the latter year had the satisfaction of captaining the Canadian Eleven on the occasion of the first victory Canada had gained over the United States in twenty-eight years. His own share, too, in this success was by no means a small one, for he scored 30 and 49. Since 1880 he resided in Chicago and acted as captain of the Chicago Cricket Club. He was also a member of the successful Western Association team of 1882 which visited Philadelphia and New York. In 1885, against Sanders' team, he secured 5 wickets for 59 runs. In 1887 he captained the Canadian team which visited England; was third in the batting and first in the bowling averages, scoring 701 runs and securing 91 wickets during the tour. His principal scores were 60 vs. Gentlemen of Ireland, 98 vs. Durham, 133 vs. Gentlemen of Hampshire, 56 vs. Gentlemen of Warwickshire and 54 vs. Gentlemen of Leicestershire, and his best feats with the ball were 9 wickets for 83 vs. M.C.C. and 8 wickets for 27 vs. Warwickshire, on each occasion in the second innings. In 1896 and 1897 he won the batting average in the Chicago Cricket Association. His other centuries were 103 not out for Chicago vs. Pastimes of St. Louis in 1893, and 106 not out for Chicago vs. St. George in 1897. He was a left-handed bat with excellent defense and, what was unusual, a right-handed bowler, with considerable command over the ball, and a fine field in any position. Dr. Ogden was undoubtedly the finest all-round player in Canada, and must be classed with J. B. King, G. S. Patterson and J. A. Lester, the best which the western continent has ever produced.

H. M. PRICE, whose death occurred on April 29, was born at Ross, Herefordshire, on August 21, 1847. He was a good steady bat and keen fielder. At different times he has occupied every office of the Quebec Cricket Club.

JOHN E. ROBERTS, who died at Medomak, Maine, on August 15, was born at Leeds on December 10, 1856. He won the bowling average in the Metropolitan District Cricket League in 1889. At the time of his death he was a member of the New York Veterans.

A. G. SHINGLER, whose death occurred suddenly, on August 5, was a useful member of the Manhattan Cricket Club.

FREDERICK A. SLADE, who fell off a motor boat into the Hudson on June 28 and was drowned, was in the Ardingly Eleven in 1887, and captain of the Manhattan C.C. in 1903. He was 43 years of age.

W. LAWSON SPENCE, whose death occurred suddenly, on October 24, at Vega Alto, Porto Rico, in his thirty-first year, was born on the Island of St. Vincent, B. W. I. He was a useful member of the Brooklyn Cricket Club for several years.

JOHN W. WIGLEY, whose death occurred at Trenton, N. J., on October 25, age 59, was secretary and treasurer of the Trenton Cricket Club. He was the mainstay of the club for many years.

RODMAN WISTER died at the Media Hospital, Philadelphia, on August 4, in his seventieth year. He was the founder of the Young America Club and a member of the well-known brotherhood.

Notable Incidents of 1913

Marshall Winchester of Trinity College School, Port Hope, Ont., age seventeen years, threw cricket ball 108 yards.

June 30, L. A. Cody and C. G. Macartney put on 179 runs for second wicket and Warren Bardsley and P. S. Arnott 138 for fifth wicket for Australians vs. Gentlemen of Philadelphia, at Haverford. Australians' total, 412 runs for 5 wickets.

July 9, R. P. Anderson, 108 retired, and W. P. Newhall, 118 retired, put on 183 runs for 4 wickets for Germantown vs. Montreal Athletic Association, at Haverford.

August 9, E. H. Mann, 103 retired, and H. S. Harned, 106 retired, put on 230 runs for first wicket for Germantown Team B vs. Philadelphia (a record for this wicket in the Philadelphia Cup competition).

August 16, A. Reed, bowling for Columbia Oval vs. Brooklyn Team B, at Brooklyn, secured 6 wickets for 0 runs.

August 20, A. P. Jeffery, batting for Columbia Oval against Steamship Minnewaska, at New York, carried his bat right through innings without scoring. Total of innings, 54 runs.

August 24, T. Baker, bowling for Anglo-American vs. Vernon Lodge, at New York, secured 6 wickets for 0 runs.

August 27, R. J. Beecham, 249, and W. Twynam, 106, put on 249 runs for third wicket for Burrard vs. New Westminster, at Victoria, B. C.. R. J. Beecham's score of 249 being a Canadian record. R. J. Beecham's score included 2 sixes, 36 fours, 6 threes and 21 twos.

June 29, A. Evelyn, 103 not out, and R. Macpherson, 103 not out, put on 176 runs for third wicket for Bensonhurst against Commercial Cable Company, at Bensonhurst.

August 27, H. A. Spencer, 79 not out, and H. A. Goward, 76, for Victoria vs. Garrison, put on 133 runs for 9 wickets, at Victoria, B. C.

September 1, St. Albans scored 439 against Riverdale, at Toronto, which is a Canadian record score for a club game.

May 28, W. T. Brook, 106 not out, and P. W. Johnson, 104, for St. Johns against Pryce Jones, at Calgary, put on 152 runs for 6 wickets.

September 22, the Australians scored 633 runs for 8 wickets against Vancouver Fifteen, at Vancouver. W. Bardsley, 159 not out; C. G. Macartney, 134; Campbell, 112. This is the highest score hit in Canada and also highest score made by a visiting team in the United States or Canada.

In the match between Germantown and the Australians, played at Manheim on August 6-7, in which the Australians suffered their solitary defeat, W. P. O'Neill caught out ten batsmen, a record for a first-class game.

On September 1, the Australians dismissed the Winnipeg Cricket Association for 6 runs in their second innings. This is the smallest score in an international match in Canada—two runs from the bat and four extras. C. G. Macartney secured 6 wickets for 4 runs and J. N. Crawford 4 for 0 runs.

On August 9, at Celtic Park, Long Island, the Australians dismissed the West Indians in their first innings for 13 runs. This is the lowest score in an international match in the United States.

J. H. Mason, J. L. Evans, W. P. O'Neill, J. S. Bretz and Sydney Young have been elected to honorary membership in the Incogniti Cricket Club. A more delicate and befitting manner of extending thanks for the hospitality of the American cricketers could scarcely be imagined.

During the Brooklyn-Staten Island game, at Livingston, on June 7, lightning struck and set fire to a tree on the grounds.

Australians vs. Vancouver Fifteen at Vancouver, September 22, runs at fall of each wicket as far as obtainable:

DIAGRAM OF CRICKET FIELD.

The Laws of Cricket

AS AMENDED BY THE MARYLEBONE CLUB.

1. A match is played between two sides of eleven players each, unless otherwise agreed to; each side has two innings, taken alternately, except in the case provided for in Law 53. The choice of innings shall be decided by tossing.

2. The score shall be reckoned by runs. A run is scored:

1st. So often as the batsmen, after a hit, or at any time while the ball is in play, shall have crossed, and made good their ground, from end to end.

2nd. For penalties under Law 16, 34, 41, and allowances under 44.

Any run or runs so scored shall be duly recorded by scorers appointed for the purpose. The side which scores the greatest number of runs wins the match. No match is won unless played out or given up except in the case provided for in Law 45.

3. Before the commencement of the match, two umpires shall be appointed: one for each end.

4. The Ball shall weigh not less than five ounces and a half, nor more than five ounces and three-quarters. It shall measure not less than nine inches, nor more than nine inches and one-quarter in circumference. At the beginning of each innings, either side may demand a new ball.

5. The Bat shall not exceed four inches and one-quarter in the widest part; it shall not be more than thirty-eight inches in length.

6. The Wickets shall be pitched opposite and parallel to each other at a distance of twenty-two yards. Each wicket shall be eight inches in width, and consist of three stumps, with two bails upon the top. The stumps shall be of equal and of sufficient size to prevent the ball from passing through, twenty-seven inches out of the ground. The bails shall be each four inches in length, and when in position, on the top of the stumps, shall not project more than half an inch above them. The wickets shall not be changed during a match, unless the ground between them becomes unfit for play, and then only by consent of both sides.

7. The Bowling Crease shall be in a line with the stumps; eight feet eight inches in length; the stumps in the center with a return crease at each end, at right angles behind the wicket.

8. The Popping Crease shall be marked four feet from the wicket, parallel to it, and be deemed unlimited in length.

9. The ground shall not be rolled, watered, covered, mown, or beaten during a match, except before the commencement of each innings and of each day's play, when, unless the in-side object, the ground shall be swept and rolled for not more than ten minutes. This shall not prevent the batsman from beating the ground with his bat, nor the batsman nor bowler from using sawdust in order to obtain a proper foothold.

10. The ball must be bowled; if thrown or jerked, either umpire shall call "No ball."

11. The Bowler shall deliver the ball with one foot on the ground behind the bowling crease, and within the return crease, otherwise the umpire shall call "No ball."

12. If the bowler shall bowl the ball so high over or so wide of the wicket that in the opinion of the umpire it is not within reach of the striker, the umpire shall call "Wide ball."

13. The ball shall be bowled in overs of six balls from each wicket alternately. When six balls have been bowled, and the ball is finally settled in the bowler's or wicket-keeper's hands, the umpire shall call "Over." Neither a "no ball" nor "wide ball" shall be reckoned as one of the "over."

14. The bowler shall be allowed to change ends as often as he pleases, provided only that he does not bowl two overs consecutively in one innings.

15. The bowler may require the batsman at the wicket from which he is bowling to stand on that side of it which he may direct.

16. The striker may hit a "no ball," and whatever runs result shall be added to his score; but he shall not be out from a "no ball" unless he be run out or break Laws 26, 27, 29, 30. All runs made from a "no ball" otherwise than from the bat, shall be scored "no balls," and if no run be made one run shall be added to that score. From a "wide ball" as many runs as are run shall be added to the score as "wide balls," and if no run be otherwise obtained, one run shall be so added.

17. If the ball, not having been called "wide" or "no ball," pass the striker without touching his bat or person, and any runs be obtained, the umpire shall call "Bye"; but if the ball touch any part of the striker's person (hand excepted) and any runs be obtained, the umpire shall call "Leg Bye," such runs to be scored "byes" and "leg-byes" respectively.

18. At the beginning of each match, and of each innings, the umpire at the bowler's wicket shall call "Play"; from that time no trial ball shall be allowed to any bowler on the ground between the wickets, and when one of the batsmen is out the use of the bat shall not be allowed to any person until the next batsman shall come in.

19. A batsman shall be held to be "out of his ground" unless his bat in hand, or some part of his person, be grounded within the line of the popping crease.

20. The wicket shall be held to be "down" when either of the bails is struck off, or, if both bails be off, when a stump is struck out of the ground.

The Striker is out—

21. If the wicket be bowled down, even if the ball first touch the striker's bat or person:—"Bowled."

22. Or if the ball, from a stroke of the bat or hand, but not the wrist, be held before it touch the ground, although it be hugged to the body of the catcher:—"Caught."

23. Or, if in playing at the ball, provided it be not touched by the bat or hand, the striker be out of his ground, and the wicket be put down by the wicket-keeper with the ball, or with hand or arm with ball in hand:—"Stumped."

24. Or, if with part of his person he stop the ball, which in the opinion of the umpire at the bowler's wicket shall have been pitched in a straight line from it to the striker's wicket and would have hit it:—"Leg before wicket."

25. Or, if in playing at the ball, he hit down his wicket with his bat, or any part of his person or dress:—"Hit Wicket."

26. Or, if under pretence of running, or otherwise, either of the batsmen wilfully prevent a ball from being caught:—"Obstructing the Field."

27. Or, if the ball be struck or be stopped by any part of his person, and he wilfully strike it again, except it be done for the purpose of guarding his wicket, which he may do with his bat, or any part of his person except his hands:—"Hit the ball twice."

Either Batsman is out—

28. If in running, or at any other time, while the ball is in play, he be out of his ground, and his wicket be struck down by the ball after touching any fieldsman, or by the hand or arm, with ball in hand, of any fieldsman:—"Run Out."

29. Or, if he touch with his hands or take up the ball while in play, unless at the request of the opposite side:—"Handled the Ball."

30. Or, if he wilfully obstruct any fieldsman:—"Obstructing the field."

31. If the batsmen have crossed each other, he that runs for wicket which is put down is out; if they have not crossed, he that has left the wicket that has been put down is out.

32. The striker being caught, no run shall be scored. A batsman being run out, that run which was being attempted shall not be scored.

33A. A batsman being out from any cause, the ball shall be "dead."

33B. If the ball, whether struck by the bat or not, lodges in a batsman's clothing, the ball shall become "dead."

34. If a ball in play cannot be found or recovered, any fieldsman may call "Lost ball," when the ball shall be "dead"; six runs shall be added to the score; but if more than six runs have been run before "Lost ball" has been called, as many runs as have been run shall be scored.

35. After the ball shall have been finally settled in the wicket-keeper's or bowler's hand, it shall be "dead"; but when the bowler is about to deliver the ball, if the batsman at his wicket be out of his ground before actual delivery, the said bowler may run him out; but if the bowler throw at the wicket and any run result, it shall be scored "No ball."

36. A batsman shall not retire from his wicket and return to it to complete his innings after another has been in, without the consent of the opposite side.

37. A substitute shall be allowed to field or run between wickets for any player who may, during the match, be incapacitated from illness or injury, but for no other reason, except with the consent of the opposite side.

38. In all cases where a substitute shall be allowed, the consent of the opposite side shall be obtained as to the person to act as substitute, and the place in the field which he shall take.

39. In case any substitute shall be allowed to run between wickets, the striker may run out if either he or his substitute be out of his ground. If the striker be out of his ground while the ball is in play, that wicket which he has left may be put down and the striker given out, although the other batsman may have made good the ground at that end, and the striker and his substitute at the other end.

40. A batsman is liable to be out for any infringement of the laws by his substitute.

41. The fieldsman may stop the ball with any part of his person, but if he wilfully stop it otherwise, the ball shall be "dead" and five runs added to the score; whatever runs may have been made, five only shall be added.

42. The wicket-keeper shall stand behind the wicket. If he shall take the ball for the purpose of stumping before it has passed the wicket, or, if he shall incommode the striker by any noise or motion, or if any part of his person be over or before the wicket, the striker shall not be out, excepting under Laws 26, 27, 28, 29 and 30.

43. The umpires are the sole judges of fair or unfair play, of the fitness of the ground, the weather, and the light for play; all disputes shall be determined by them, and if they disagree, the actual state of things shall continue.

44. They shall pitch fair wickets, arrange boundaries where necessary, and the allowances to be made for them, and change ends after each side has had one innings.

45. They shall allow two minutes for each striker to come in and ten minutes between each innings. When they shall call "Play," the side refusing to play shall lose the match.

46. They shall not order a batsman out unless appealed to by the other side.

47. The umpire at the bowler's wicket shall be appealed to before the other umpire in all cases except in those of stumping, hit wicket, run out at the striker's wicket, or arising out of Law 42, but in any case in which an umpire is unable to give a decision, he shall appeal to the other umpire, whose decision shall be final.

48. If either umpire be not satisfied of the absolute fairness of the delivery of any ball, he shall call "No ball."

48a. The umpire shall take especial care to call "No ball" instantly upon delivery; "Wide ball" as soon as it shall have passed the striker.

49. If either batsman run a short run, the umpire shall call "One short," and the run shall not be scored.

50. After the umpire has called "Over" the ball is "dead," but an appeal may be made as to whether either batsman is out; such appeal, however, shall not be made after the delivery of the next ball, nor after any cessation of play.

51. No umpire shall be allowed to bet.

52. No umpire shall be changed during the match, unless with the consent of both sides, except in case of violation of Law 51; then either side may dismiss him.

53. The side which bats first and leads by 150 runs in a three days' match, or 100 runs in a two days' match, shall have the option of requiring the other side to follow their innings.

54. On or after the luncheon interval on the second day of a three days' match, the in-side may declare their innings at an end; in a two days' match, on the second day, at any time.

ONE-DAY MATCHES.

1. The side which bats first and leads by 75 runs shall have the option of requiring the other side to follow their innings.

2. The match, unless played out, shall be decided by the first innings. Prior to the commencement of a match it may be agreed that the over consist of 5 or 6 balls.

3. At any time, the in-side may declare their innings at an end.

N. B.—A tie is included in the words "played out."

SINGLE WICKET.

The laws are, where they apply, the same as above, with the following alterations and additions:

1. One wicket shall be pitched as in Law 6, with a bowling stump opposite to it, at a distance of twenty-two yards. The bowling crease shall be in a line with the bowling stump, and drawn according to Law 7.

2. When there shall be less than five players on a side, bounds shall be placed twenty-two yards each in a line from the off and leg stump.

3. The ball must be hit before the bounds to entitle the striker to a run, which run cannot be obtained unless he touch the bowling stump or crease in a line with his bat, or some part of his person, or go beyond them, and return to the popping crease.

4. When the striker shall hit the ball, one of his feet must be on the ground behind the popping crease, otherwise the umpire shall call "No hit," and no run shall be scored.

5. When there shall be less than five players on a side, neither byes, leg-byes, nor overthrows shall be allowed, nor shall the striker be caught out behind the wicket, nor stumped.

6. The fieldsman must return the ball so that it shall cross the ground between the wicket and the bowling stump, or between the bowling stump and the bounds; the striker may run till the ball be so returned.

7. After the striker shall have made one run, if he start again he must touch the bowling stump or crease, and turn before the ball cross the ground to entitle him to another.

8. The striker shall be entitled to three runs for lost ball, and the same number for ball wilfully stopped by a fieldsman otherwise than with any part of his person.

9. When there shall be more than four players on a side there shall be no bounds. All hits, byes, leg-byes and overthrows shall then be allowed.

10. There shall be no restrictions as to the ball being bowled in overs, but no more than one minute shall be allowed between each ball.

INSTRUCTIONS TO UMPIRES.

These Instructions, drawn up by the Committee of the M.C.C., are intended as an appendix to the Laws of the Game.

FITNESS OF GROUND.

Law 43.—At the commencement of a match, the umpires may be appealed to by either side as to the fitness of the ground for play.

Should they not agree, play will not commence until they are agreed.

In case of interruption from rain, as soon as the rain has ceased, the umpires shall, immediately, without further instruction, inspect the wicket, unaccompanied by any of the players, and decide upon its fitness. Should it prove unfit, they shall continue to inspect at intervals, until they decide that it is fit for play, when they shall call upon the players to resume the game.

The ground is unfit for play—when water stands on the surface, or when it is so wet, muddy or slippery as to deprive the bowlers of a reasonable foothold or the fieldsmen of the power of free movement.

The umpires are not to be biased by the opinions of either side, still less are they to allow themselves to be influenced by the impatience of the spectators for a resumption of the game, and are not to be induced, by the public interest in a particular match, to declare the ground fit for play, unless they would consider that ground fit under any circumstances.

FITNESS OF LIGHT FOR PLAY.

The umpires may decide, on appeal, that there is not sufficient light for play. Should the light improve before the time for drawing stumps, they shall, without waiting for instructions, call upon the players to resume the game.

In the event of the captains agreeing as to the conditions of the ground or light, the umpires will, so far, be relieved of their responsibility.

Law 47.—An umpire is only justified in appealing to the other umpire when he is unable to decide, owing to his having been prevented from seeing the occurrence on which the appeal is based. He is not to appeal to the other umpire in cases on which he could give a decision, merely because he is unwilling to give that decision. If he be in any doubt, the principle laid down in Law 43, "That the existing state of things shall continue," shall be followed, and, in consequence, the decision shall be in favor of the batsman.

Law 48.—The special attention of umpires is called to this law, which directs them to call "no ball," unless absolutely satisfied of the fairness of the delivery.

Umpires should not allow themselves to be unduly influenced by appeals from such of the field who were not in a position to form a judgment on the point appealed upon, or by tricks such as throwing up the ball, on appealing for a catch at the wicket, without waiting for the decision. Umpires being the sole judges of fair or unfair play, should remember that such devices are obviously unfair, and are not in accordance with the spirit in which cricket should be played.

DECLARING (See Law 54).

(a) If a side declare its innings during the luncheon interval, it must do so within fifteen minutes after the commencement of such interval, otherwise an extra ten minutes will be allowed for rolling.

(b) If a side declare its innings closed in the morning before play commences, it must do so in sufficient time to enable the other side to choose the roller it prefers, otherwise an extra ten minutes will be allowed for rolling.

CODE OF SIGNALING.

Boundaries shall be signaled by waving the hand from side to side.

Byes shall be signaled by raising the open hand above the head.

Leg-byes shall be signaled by raising the leg and touching it with the hand.

Wides shall be signaled by extending both arms horizontally.

No-balls shall be signaled by extending one arm horizontally.

The decision "out" shall be signaled by raising the index finger above the head.

Umpires should wait until a signal has been answered by the scorer before allowing the game to proceed.

Besides the signaling, the umpire should "call" distinctly for the information of the players.

On giving a decision the umpire should make sure that the batsman understands what the decision is.

What to Use for Cricket and Where to Get It

This is the question put to every cricketer in the United States. His answer is: "Go to A. G. Spalding & Bros. You will see and know more in five minutes than I can tell you in a day."

A. G. Spalding & Bros. have every requisite for the game. They lay themselves out for the sport and you can get supplied with everything you require. No need to think of sending abroad. Their stock is as complete as if you were in London, and of a quality unsurpassable. Messrs. A. G. Spalding & Bros. guarantee satisfaction to every customer. You can safely place yourself in their hands and will get treated with the utmost consideration. Their business integrity well commends them to the foremost position in the sports of the world.

Well, the first consideration of every cricketer is, "Where can I get a first-class bat?" and the answer: "At A. G. Spalding & Bros.'," as they manufacture in their London factory the best cricket bats that ever came into the United States.

With the advent of the Spalding cricket bat factory, situated at Putney, England, the greatest development of the long driving bat came into the cricketing world.

The questions naturally arise: What is the virtue that A. G. Spalding Record Bat holds over others? Wherein lies the difference? Well, a word or two on this subject will explain itself.

There was a time, and that within the memory of older cricketers, when bats were nearly as round in the face as the back thereof, and one could not tell at a glance which was which. Bats which were made from the closest grained wood were considered the choicest of all; the blades, in fact, could not have too many grain marks running down the face; the closer they were the better the bat was considered, as proving the older the wood and naturally the harder. Now it is the reverse. The quicker the willow is grown and the younger the tree the better. Instead of the closest grain it is the widest. Instead of the inner clefts the outer are considered the choicest. The nearer the bark the better the cleft. The wider the grain the better the life and resiliency of the wood.

One can now gather from the foregoing remarks, that, to have a first-class blade one must get it from the nearest cut to the bark, and that being the case, it will be noticed that a trunk can only turn out a limited number of first-class clefts. The further the clefts are taken from the outside, consequently, the cheaper the bat, so that a trunk will yield all classes and all prices of bats.

Experience has taught cricketers that to drive a ball there must be substance at the back of it and it is to the Australian cricketers that the greatest credit is due for the development of the Spalding Bat—the bat of the present day. Instead of the round face as of old the face now is fairly flat, but the greatest change is seen in the amount of wood that is in the bat and, particularly in the back, about six inches from the bottom, one would say it had developed itself abnormally, as the thickness through is absolutely double that of the old fashioned bats. Where they used to compress all the cleft, now the face is only, and that leaves a large amount of wood with its natural spring to drive the ball, hence, the easier the stroke and the better the balance attained.

So much for blades. The handle now is the vital consideration. From the old all-cane splice, we have now the patent handles, with their anti-stinging feature. There are a good many of these in the market. The main idea being to allay the stinging propensity. Many a good blade is absolutely ruined by having a handle in it that renders the bat unfit to use, though the fault is found particularly among the "all-canes," no matter how carefully they are made. This drawback has been entirely overcome in A. G. Spalding & Bros.' patent handles, which are now in use in the famous Spalding "Record" and Grand Prix bats. Their combination handle has a resiliency, which, in the hands of a batsman, gives a "verve" to its action, that cannot be surpassed by any other make of bat extant. While they give you the protection, they at the same time add to the comfort of play and ease in getting the results required, which makes these bats undoubtedly the finest achievement that has been accomplished in the bat-making world.

From the foregoing remarks cricketers can see A. G. Spalding & Bros. have spared no expense to further the sport. Consequently they hold the premier place in the cricketing world, both at home and in Great Britain at the present day.

So great has the demand been growing for these bats with the cricketers in Australia that A. G. Spalding & Bros. have found it absolutely necessary to establish a large branch there and opened same in Sydney in November, 1908.

Real live cricketers are getting alive to the fact that the demand for high class bats is so great that unless they look sharp they will be left out in the cold. A. G. Spalding & Bros. are also alive to this fact, and being wishful to give every one of their numerous customers a chance are offering intending purchasers the privilege of coming in at once to select their bats, and on the deposit of $1.00 to reserve their chosen bat for them, undertaking to oil and hand over the same in the finest condition possible when required.

As all the Spalding bats are made in London a great deal of time is taken up in ordering and getting delivery of same, and intending purchasers will at once see the advantage and avail themselves of the above offer, which not only applies to bats but to all cricket goods now in stock.

Before leaving the subject of bats perhaps it will be as well to say a few words on the abuse of a bat. A great many are under the impression that a bat, and particularly a select one, is good for any amount of play. While that is correct in one way it is erroneous in another, and to expect any bat to be used by a whole club, we shall say, and stand good, is an impossibility. In the first instance no two cricketers hit the same way, and every member wants to try the new bat, with the result that too much work is put on it and instead of gradually hardening it down to its work it is twisted here by one and slogged about by another until at last the bat cannot stand the strain and bursts up.

In England, the home of cricket, bats are not so treated. Every cricketer owns his own and when he purchases same chooses one suitable for his own special use, one that the balance and weight exactly suits his style and to him becomes an object of his special attention. Under no pretext whatever will he allow it out of his keeping, first taking it out to practice with, taking care that old balls are used, gives the bat half an hour at the nets, not trying to see how far he can drive a ball, but gently getting into the feel of the bat and gradually extending himself until he is master of it, and he and it become as one and are inseparable. To try to borrow that bat is an unpardonable offence, for the cricketer knows it would mean its immediate destruction, as the different action of another player invariably proves fatal. It is quite a common thing and characteristic of every lover of cricket to keep his old friends that he has passed so many pleasant days with and you will find at his home all his bats that have proved themselves worthy occupying the most prominent position in his smoke room and on each bat is written their and his record of conquests won.

While it is important that every cricketer possesses his own bat it is also important that he sees that the same is well seasoned and not only that, but it is always recommended and advisable to have a new bat taped across its most vital parts, as it is a great help to its hardening down, after which time it can be taken ff

They have also brought to the front for the benefit of those cricketers who like to attend to their own bats or who reside at a distance and cannot get them repaired as quickly as desired a Complete Amateur Outfit, comprising a bottle of special oil, tape, varnish, brush, liquid glue, wooden pegs and brad awl, put up in neat small box, price 50 cents. No cricketer should be without this as first aid, for a little damage caught in time often saves the life of a bat.

The most important item is the ball. The Grand Prix, $2.00, is the best cricket ball made, and when you are informed that A. G. Spalding & Bros. have had not a single one returned or a complaint made is sufficient testimony of itself. The County Match, at $1.75, and the Youths' Match, at $1.50 are splendid balls and well worth the money.

Another important item and one of great consequence is the pitch. In this country, where ground is so scarce and pitches hard to get (this is undoubtedly the greatest deterrent to the advance of cricket here), cricketers have to put up with what they can catch. Often the ground, through lack of space (there being no room to change the pitch), gets cut up and hardly fit to play an important match on. This can be easily obviated by the judicious use of cocoanut matting during practice, and A. G. Spalding & Bros. have imported these in 6-foot widths, green in color, and the length of the pitch, without a seam in the center, which preserves the good pitch and turns an indifferent one into a pleasureable ground and, as in the case of some where there is no grass to speak of, renders the ground a thoroughly practical place and, in fact, according to Mr. A. E. Leach of the Elizabeth (N. J.) Cricket Club, the success of his club, which gained both the batting and bowling averages in the New Jersey State League, was attributed to this acquisition. "Without this," he said, when addressing a large meeting of cricketers at Newark, "they undoubtedly would not have reached the high standard they did."

The next items of interest to the cricketer are pads. In this A. G. Spalding & Bros. have given their untiring attention. While eight or nine different styles are carried, the main object in each has been to secure lightness with sufficient protection and in their various sizes to fit all. Others, such as the Spalding "Record," have extra pads on the inside of the knee and extending over the calf on the inside of the right and outside of the left leg and is considered the most efficient of all. Another invaluable leg guard and most suitable for wicket keepers is the No. 5, with three rolls at the knee and made with continuous lacing strap or with elasties, as well as strapping in the usual manner. With the Century and Oxford, which latter is ventilated, comprises the Spalding list of solid buckskin. Then for lightness and ventilation the Grand Prix skeleton leg guard, in both white mock buckskin and gold cape, are excellent for coolness in the warm weather.

Before leaving this subject there is another important item to mention, viz., cricket bags. A most important part of the paraphernalia of the cricketer, which has been most neglected of all and is one of the most essential, conducing to the enjoyment of the sport in no little degree. What cricketer is there that does not know the inconvenience of carrying a suit case in one hand and his bat in the other, the flurry of getting through the streets of cities thus incommoded and perhaps a long tramp to the cricket ground, arriving there with a harassed look and the appearance of a regular "globe trotter?" The annoyance of this is calculated to cast a damper on the commencement of the day's sport and again, after the match the usual packing up, seizing of grips and off as quickly as possible to get rid of the incumbrance. A. G. Spalding & Bros. have taken this matter up in the same effectual manner as heretofore and imported a choice selection of cricket bags that will meet the requirements of every one.

SPALDING TENNIS POSTS

Spalding "Championship" Tennis Posts
In use on the courts of the most prominent clubs in this country.
Uprights of heavy 2-inch japanned steel tubing, go 24 inches into ground and each equipped with wheel at top. Ratchet for tightening net has a particularly strong leverage.
Triple claw clutches, made of heavy wrought iron, hold posts firm with no shifting or shaking and the tighter the net is drawn the more rigid the posts become.
No. A. Pair, $20.00

Spalding "Club" Tennis Posts
Best quality 2¾-inch square ash, nicely polished and varnished. Equipped with japanned braces and extend 30 inches into the ground. Extra heavy brass ratchet is made after an English design, and is the same as supplied by our London House to some of the best clubs in Great Britain.
No. B. Pair, $10.00

Spalding Tennis Posts
Square posts of wood, handsomely painted. Wheel at top of each post and reel fastened to one post; japanned iron bracket braces to steady posts, which extend 24 inches into the ground.
No. DR. Pair, $5.50

Canvas Center Straps
For Holding Center of Net at Regulation Height
No. 2-0. Does not chafe the net, and cannot possibly cause the ball to glance off and strike out of court. . . . . Each, $1.00
No. 3-0. Tournament Pattern, same as No. 2-0, except fitted with a turn-buckle, with which height of net can be adjusted to a hair. Ea., $1.25

Spalding "Auto-Loc" Tennis Posts
For private courts or wherever it is desirable to remove posts immediately after play is finished.
The spade-shaped iron sockets are driven into the ground in the proper position for the posts, which are fitted with iron bases fitting exactly the sockets in the spade bases and keeping the posts absolutely rigid when placed in position. When posts are removed a block of wood (supplied with posts) is inserted in each hole. The "Auto-Loc" tightening ratchet is a patented device which permits the closest adjustment in tightening and regulating the height of the net, and locks automatically and instantly as soon as released.
No. AL. Pair, $18.00

Spalding "Casino" Tennis Posts
Heavy square wood posts, painted red and nicely varnished and striped. Wheel at top of each post and reel attached to one post. Extra heavy japanned iron brackets to steady posts, which extend 30 inches into the ground.
No. C. Pair, $7.50

Spalding "Side-Line" Tennis Posts
To put net at the proper height for a single court game without taking down net or removing regular double court posts.
No. SL. Pair, 75c.

Iron Center Forks
No. 2. Good quality iron fork. Each, $1.00

Spalding Wood Backstop Post
No. BS. Backstop Post only; wooden. . . Each, $1.25

Spalding "Anchored" Steel Tennis Post
Posts of galvanized steel tubing, 2½ inches in diameter, are held securely in place by anchor stakes driven through sockets on the sides of the posts. The most reliable and rigid method of fastening upright posts permanently that has ever been brought to our attention.
One post fitted with tightening ratchet
No. AP. Pair, $12.00

MR. T. W. CAHILL, Secretary,
American Amat. Foot Ball Assn.,
Astor House, New York City.

Dear Sir:

The satisfaction of our players with the Spalding Olympic Soccer Foot Ball has been such that I feel it a duty as well as a pleasure to compliment the games committee of the American Amateur Foot Ball Association for having adopted it as the Official Ball of this Association during the semi-final and final cup tie games. The manner in which the Spalding Olympic Soccer Foot Ball stood up during the final game of the cup tie competition, which was won by the Yonkers Foot Ball Club from the Hollywood Inn Foot Ball Club, showed the superb quality of this ball. The final game was played in a drenching rain and muddy field. Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather conditions, to say nothing of the abuse to which the ball was subjected during the competition, the twelve-piece Spalding Olympic Soccer Foot Ball not only retained its perfect spherical shape, but it did not become heavy, and at the end of the match was in as good condition for competitive play as it had been at the beginning of the game.

Yours truly,

J. Kerr.

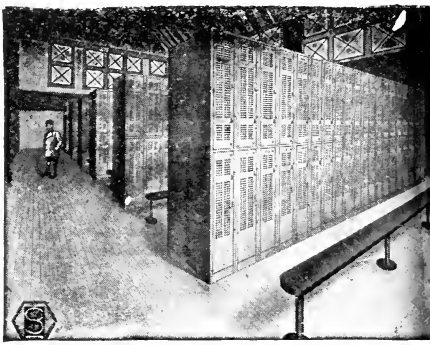
ASSOCIATION or Soccer Foot Ball is a safe game for the boys to play and it is becoming more and more popular each year with the elementary, high schools and preparatory schools throughout the United States, because it is a game they can all take part in, and it is an exercise that fits them for other field pastimes.

Durand-Steel Lockers



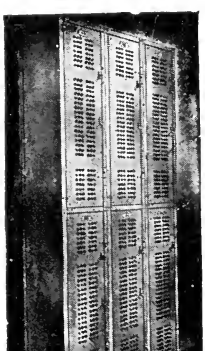
Some of the 6,000 Durand-Steel Lockers installed in t
Public Gymnasiums of Chicago. 12'x 15'x 42', Double Ti

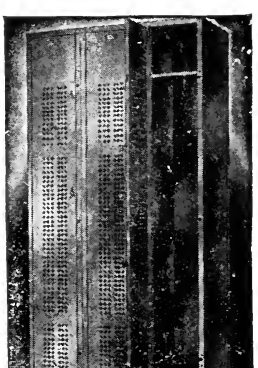
Wooden lockers are objectionable, because they attract vermin, absorb odors, can be easily broken into, and are dangerous on account of fire.

Lockers made from wire mesh or expanded metal afford little security, as they can be easily entered with wire cutters. Clothes placed in them become covered with dust, and the lockers themselves present a poor appearance, resembling animal cages.

Durand-Steel Lockers are made of finest grade furniture steel and are finished with gloss black, furnace-baked japan (400°), comparable to that used on hospital ware, which will never flake off nor require refinishing, as do paints and enamels.

Durand-Steel Lockers are usually built w doors perforated full length in panel design with si and backs solid. This prevents clothes in one loc from coming in contact with wet garme in adjoining lockers, while plenty of ver lation is secured by having the door per rated its entire length, but, if the purcha prefers, we perforate the backs also.





The cost of Durand-Steel Locke is no more than that of first-cla wooden lockers, and they last as l as the building, are sanitary, secure, a in addition, are fire-proof.

THE FOLLOWING STANDARD SIZES AR THOSE MOST COMMONLY USED:

DOUBLE TIER	SINGLE TIER
12 x 12 x 36 Inch	12 x 12 x 60 Inc
15 x 15 x 36 Inch	15 x 15 x 60 Inc
12 x 12 x 42 Inch	12 x 12 x 72 Inc
15 x 15 x 42 Inch	15 x 15 x 72 Inc

SPECIAL SIZES MADE TO ORDER.

We are handling lockers as a special c tract business, and shipment will in ev case be made direct from the factory Chicago. If you will let us know the nu ber of lockers, size and arrangement, shall be glad to take up, through cor spondence, the matter of prices.

Standard Policy

A Standard Quality must be inseparably linked to a Standard Policy.

Without a definite and Standard Mercantile Policy, it is impossible for a Manufacturer to long maintain a Standard Quality.

To market his goods through the jobber, a manufacturer must provide a profit for the jobber as well as for the retail dealer. To meet these conditions of Dual Profits, the manufacturer is obliged to set a proportionately high list price on his goods to the consumer.

To enable the glib salesman, when booking his orders, to figure out attractive profits to both the jobber and retailer, these high list prices are absolutely essential; but their real purpose will have been served when the manufacturer has secured his order from the jobber, and the jobber has secured his order from the retailer.

However, these deceptive high list prices are not fair to the consumer, who does not, and, in reality, is not ever expected to pay these fancy list prices.

When the season opens for the sale of such goods, with their misleading but alluring high list prices, the retailer begins to realize his responsibilities, and grapples with the situation as best he can, by offering "special discounts," which vary with local trade conditions.

Under this system of merchandising, the profits to both the manufacturer and the jobber are assured; but as there is no stability maintained in the prices to the consumer, the keen competition amongst the local dealers invariably leads to a demoralized cutting of prices by which the profits of the retailer are practically eliminated.

This demoralization always reacts on the manufacturer. The jobber insists on lower, and still lower, prices. The manufacturer, in his turn, meets this demand for the lowering of prices by the only way open to him, viz.: the cheapening and degrading of the quality of his product.

The foregoing conditions became so intolerable that 15 years ago, in 1899, A. G. Spalding & Bros. determined to rectify this demoralization in the Athletic Goods Trade, and inaugurated what has since become known as "The Spalding Policy."

The "Spalding Policy" eliminates the jobber entirely, so far as Spalding Goods are concerned, and the retail dealer secures the supply of Spalding Athletic Goods direct from the manufacturer by which the retail dealer is assured a fair, legitimate and certain profit on all Spalding Athletic Goods, and the consumer is assured a Standard Quality and is protected from imposition.

The "Spalding Policy" is decidedly for the interest and protection of the users of Athletic Goods, and acts in two ways:

First.—The user is assured of genuine Official Standard Athletic Goods.

Second.—As manufacturers, we can proceed with confidence in purchasing at the proper time, the very best raw materials required in the manufacture of our various goods, well ahead of their respective seasons, and this enables us to provide the necessary quantity and absolutely maintain the Spalding Standard of Quality.

All retail dealers handling Spalding Athletic Goods are requested to supply consumers at our regular printed catalogue prices—neither more nor less—the same prices that similar goods are sold for in our New York, Chicago and other stores.

All Spalding dealers, as well as users of Spalding Athletic Goods, are treated exactly alike, and no special rebates or discriminations are allowed to anyone.

This briefly, is the "Spalding Policy," which has already been in successful operation for the past 15 years, and will be indefinitely continued.

In other words, "The Spalding Policy" is a "square deal" for everybody.
